GERMANY'S NEW PROGRAM READ

Chancellor Mueller Gives Details to Reichstag

Stresemann Policy Controls Present Plan of Action

Demand Framed for Broad General Disarmament

BERLIN, July 3. (AP)—Dr. Hermann Mueller, Chancellor, submitted the program of the new Cabinet to the Reichstag today. The program of the new Cabinet is a makeshift body, but is determined to co-operate with the new Reichstag for a full term of years. After asserting that "the foundation of the new German republic stands firm and unshakable," the Chancellor announced that Germany's foreign policy would be continued along the lines set down by Gustav Stresemann of "peaceful" reconciliation with renunciation of all ideas of revenge. Declaring that "with the whole German people the government is convinced of the justice of our demand for immediate liberalization of the occupied areas," Dr. Mueller went on to say that the occupying powers, failing to take advantage of the political development in recent years are keeping up a barrier which "stands in the way of establishing a real relationship of mutual trust between peoples."

ALLEGIANCE PLEDGED

The Chancellor then pledged allegiance to the League of Nations, saying:

"We see in it one of the most important factors of international life and thereby also of promotion of national interests."

His program on this subject is in the nature of an appeal to the nations for universal disarmament. He pointed out how Germany, completely disarmed, has done more for international security than any other.

"Germany," he continued, "was the first state unconditionally agreeing to the American general pact for the outlawry of war. We shall continue to do our part toward realization of this grandly conceived plan, which places the safeguarding of peace on the broadest basis thinkable."

UNIVERSAL DISARMAMENT

All this, Dr. Mueller argued, gives Germany the right and duty to insist upon a plan for the consummation of universal disarmament, and that this plan be taken up seriously.

"The world must be made to realize the unstable state of affairs," he added, "that Germany alone is completely disarmed amidst other countries armed to the teeth."

On the question of reparations the Chancellor laid stress on how after the Dawes plan had worked without friction for four years, "the conviction has gained ground in all circles concerned that a final settlement is not only desirable, but also possible."

"The success of the negotiations on this matter," he went on, "will depend on the degree of mutual concession and application of methods of sensible economic policy."

SAFEGUARDS FOR GERMANS

In determining the final sum of reparations, he said, care must be taken to safeguard a decent standard of living for the German people.

To enable Germany to meet reparation payments, Dr. Mueller promised that the government would do all possible to expand Germany's foreign trade relations and would seek to bring about a lowering of tariffs by international agreement.

"The world today," he declared, "suffers from protectionism."

Turning to labor problems the Chancellor announced that it is the government's intention to ratify the Washington eight-hour agreement. The remainder of the government declaration was taken up with internal affairs.

Miss De Mille Prefers Stage to Film Career

NEW YORK, July 3. (Exclusive)—The daughter of William De Mille, motion-picture director, has definitely scorned her father's help in the motion-picture field and is dancing her way into a career entirely her own.

"I want to earn my own living in my own way," she explained. "I would have liked to go into the films once upon a time, but my father and my uncle never made me any offers then. They wanted me to go to college and behave myself. Now it is too late."

POSTAL CLERK HELD AS MAIL TAMPERER

SAN JOSE, July 3. (Exclusive)—Under suspicion for several months as a tamperer with mail, Joseph G. Ceana, postal clerk with seven years of service, was arrested here today by postal inspectors from the San Francisco office. They said he had been trapping mail marked money in a decoy letter.

ABBOT APPOINTED FOR AERONAUTICAL GROUP

SUPERIOR (Wis.) July 3. (AP)—Charles G. Abbot, secretary of the Smithsonian Institution, was appointed today by President Coolidge to be a member of the National Advisory Committee for Aeronautics.

TWENTY-ONE FIRES

BAKERSFIELD, July 3. (AP)—Twenty-one fires here during June totaled $10,253.83, resulting from twenty-one blazes, according to the report of Fire Chief W. E. Vannetter to City Manager James Ogden.

MELON SHIPMENTS START

Ripening of Corcoran District Cantaloupes Held Up by Cool Weather; Large Acreage Planted

HANFORD, July 3. (Exclusive)—Cantaloupe shipment from the Corcoran district is expected to begin tomorrow. County Horticultural Commissioner L. O. Haupt visited the fields last week and said today that the first movement of the crop would no doubt start on the holiday although the cool weather of the past week has retarded ripening to some extent.

Harp & Beckett have the largest acreage in melons this year with more than 600 acres planted to cantaloupes, honey balls and watermelons, while last year they had 100 acres planted to the same crops. At the Denny ranch 320 acres are planted in cantaloupes and 190 acres in honey balls, while 120 acres is devoted to cantaloupes and 100 to watermelons at the Hansen ranch. Hale's Best, a salmon-colored melon, was raised this year in preference to the Polack, a white-meat melon, which was in great demand last season.

Corcoran presents a busy picture at this time with the daily arrival of people to be employed in the harvest. Provision has been made to ship 300 carloads of cantaloupes from the district which will require approximately 100,000 crates. It is estimated that the services of fifty packers will be demanded and that of as many truckers and loaders between 200 and 300 pickers will be used during the harvest.

With a carry-over estimated in authoritative sources at 131,000 tons, and a production this year estimated at 300,000 tons, the growers are looking for means of stabilizing the situation and bringing a better price for their product than the figure of 2½ cents now being offered by the packers. It is their hope that in organization of a pool they will be able to control the raisins and keep the price up to a level that will pay them for their labor in producing the fruit.

COMMISSION MEN TO MEET SHIPPERS

BAKERSFIELD, July 3.—More than 100 Los Angeles commission-house leaders will convene next Tuesday noon, July 10, in the south city, to discuss the handling of Kern county's choice grapes, marketed under the direction of the Kern County Growers' Clearinghouse, which is being organized by K. C. West, field representative of the local grape association.

The meeting, called at the suggestion of Donald J. Conn, managing director of the California Vineyardists' Association, of which the local group is an associated unit, will be attended by Conn, Thomas D. Humphreys, Los Angeles sales manager for the Kern clearinghouse, and H. K. Dickson, president. West also will attend the conference to lay before the growers the plans of the local association, the guaranteed quality of produce to be marketed under the direction of the clearinghouse, and the probable tonnage which will be handled through the organization.

The directors tentatively considered setting up of a clearinghouse in Los Angeles for the benefit of Kern growers with small acreages. The plan, if put into operation, would mean the building of a large commission house as a clearinghouse to which small growers, unfamiliar with market conditions, could consign their fruit for distribution at the highest market prices to other commission houses.

BOY DROWNS IN ATTEMPT AT RESCUE

REDFIRE FIRE CHIEF IN FUTURE TRIP TO REVIVE VICTIM WITH OXYGEN

TULARE, July 3.—The body of Frank Viles, 12 years of age, former Tulare resident but more recently of Fresno, who gave his life last yesterday afternoon in an attempt to save Howard Russell, 12 years of age, from drowning at Camp Cains, Y.M.C.A. summer camp, near Gen. Grant National Park, lies at Goble's parlors here, where it will be conducted to Camp Cains on Thursday.

Under the agreement signed by Judge Lamberson, the defendant district is permitted to divert five cubic feet of water per second, continuous flow, beginning May 15 of each year, provided that at no time shall water be pumped when the average depth of water beneath the surface of the flat or sandy portions of said property exceeds twenty-five feet.

To gain permission to divert this water, the defendant district must place upon said land all of its share of the water flowing in the canal of the Deer Creek Ditch Company, or so much thereof as shall be necessary to fill the sand of the property. This permit conversion of the Halbert land into a storage basin full of water. The settlement specifically provides that no water shall be pumped from the ditch. Wells to be sunk by the district shall not penetrate the clay stratum more than fifteen feet.

WOMAN FACES MURDER TRIAL

No Defense Testimony Heard at First Hearing

Vengeance Slayer is Denied Freedom on Bail

CASE IS RESULT OF SHOOTING AT EDGE OF GRAVE

FRESNO, July 3.—Mrs. Josephine Noctio, middle-aged widow and mother of several children, was today held to answer in the Superior Court on a charge of murder, in connection with the shooting to death of Tony Chiodi, recently, while the woman and her victim were members of a large crowd of Italians who were present at a funeral service at a local cemetery.

City Justice Church held her to answer without bail after a brief and perfunctory hearing in which only two witnesses were called by Asst. Dist. Atty. Stewart, and in which no defense was offered. Mrs. Noctio's husband was shot to death by Chiodi several weeks ago, in what Chiodi asserted was a duel. He was acquitted of a murder charge upon a plea of self-defense.

VENIZELLOS HAS CABINET TASK

Re-Premier Again at Helm in Greece

Causes Defeat of Zaimis Government

"Strong Man's" Career Has Been Dramatic

ATHENS, July 3. (AP)—Eleutherios Venizelos, former premier and dominant factor in the Liberal party, has been entrusted with the formation of a new cabinet. Parliament will be dissolved.

President Kondouriotis decided to call in the former premier when the Zaimis cabinet resigned after a crisis concerning measures proposed by the Minister of Finance. Venizelos, as leader of the Liberal party, was strongly opposed to these financial measures and it was this opposition which led to the retirement of the ministry.

M. Venizelos in announcing to the representatives of the foreign press that he had undertaken formation of a cabinet which will be sworn in tomorrow said he does not intend to change the foreign policy of the government.

He had requested M. Michalakopoulos to retain the foreign portfolio but the latter regretted his inability to comply with the request of his colleagues of the Liberal cabinet.

FRANKED BY WILSON

The return of Venizelos to guide the destinies of Greece is just another incident in the dramatic career of this man, whom President Wilson described as one of the greatest statesmen in Europe.

When Venizelos left Greece he left behind him a political situation which was a puzzle to all who followed him. He had been in power for a long time, and his policies had been a source of controversy. He had been a strong advocate of the League of Nations, and his policies had been a source of controversy. He had been a strong advocate of the League of Nations, and his policies had been a source of controversy.

VENIZELLOS "STRONG MAN"

When he came to Greece in 1909, Venizelos, then a young man, found a country in a state of anarchy. He took part in the revolution of 1909 and was elected premier in 1910. On his return to Greece, when peace was re-established, he became a member of the Greek Assembly. From that time his influence became augmented until he was elected as the "strong man" of Greece.

In all his political activities, Venizelos was hostile to the royal family, and to him has been attributed an important part in the revolution which forced the abdication of King George II in 1924.

He was the leader of the revolutionary party under Col. Plastiras.

He held the office of Prime Minister for many years and it was largely due to his diplomacy, as well as to his military successes, that he was able to expand the boundaries of Greece.

His policy was to expand the boundaries of Greece. He was a strong advocate of the League of Nations, and his policies had been a source of controversy.

TAX MAY TRIP GUN WIELDERS

Chicago Gangsters Likely to be Sent to Prison for Not Paying Income Levy

CHICAGO, July 3. (AP)—Sending gunmen to prison under the income-tax law is the new proposal under the serious consideration of Chicago Federal authorities.

Racketeers who employ terrorist methods to intrude themselves in their racket are liable to prison sentences for failure to account to the government for their incomes. A. P. Madden, chief of the special intelligence unit of the internal revenue division, explained.

The government theory, as he outlined it, is that certain racketeers have paid graft and that certain officials have received it without mentioning it on their income tax returns.

INDIAN WAR POSSIBLE IN UTAH AREA

Goshutes Menace Whites in Conflict Growing Out of Grazing Dispute

SALT LAKE CITY, July 3. (AP)—A serious situation has arisen between Goshute Indians and white residents in the region of Bapa, on the Nevada-Utah line, said a telegram sent by United States Marshal Pack to Atty-Gen. Sargent in Washington today.

The marshal requested permission to dispatch a group of deputies to the scene of the trouble, which was reported to have grown out of grazing difficulties.

Dr. E. A. Farrow of Cedar City, superintendent of seven Indian agencies in Utah, said the Indians were being aroused by "bad whites," who told them they were being discriminated against in disputes over grazing privileges.

Farrow said two Indians were arrested yesterday at Bapa with eight gallons of whisky. George Gossett, in charge of Utah Federal prohibition forces, said that while the sale of liquor to the Goshutes Indians by whites had been reported, liquor apparently was not being sold, but rather the cause of the trouble.

The scene of the trouble is in a remote region, with scant communication facilities.

Chicago Judges Blameless in Felony Waiving

CHICAGO, July 3. (AP)—Three Criminal Court judges accused of "paltering with crime" tonight were absolved from all blame for the waiving of felonies in a report by the special tribunal of Circuit and Superior Court judges.

The three judges are Emanuel Eller, nephew of Morris Eller, political boss; Stanley H. Klarkowski, and Otto Kerner. Charges of "paltering" were made against them by the Chicago Crime Commission whose president is Frank J. Loesch, chief investigator of primary election disorders.

Reds Raise Scene at Miners' Mass

ST. ETIENNE (France) July 3. (AP)—The solemn mass and funeral for the forty-four miners killed in the Roche la Molle mine disaster Saturday was nearly broken up today when a gang of Communists burst into the church yelling that their deaths were caused by the neglect of "capitalist murderers."

Interrupting the services the Reds gave violent speeches claiming the loss of life was needless and accusing the owners of gross indifference to the fate of the workers.

The tiny church was unable to contain the crowds, which were ranged outside, while the service was scarred on with difficulty, due to the threats of the Communists and weeping and wailing of the widows and mothers.

SLAYING ENDS BITTER QUARREL OVER WOMAN

PHOENIX, July 3. (AP)—A quarrel of long standing was ended last evening when Frank Escalante, 27 years of age, cotton grower residing four miles north of Peoria, was shot and killed by N. Lebario, his partner in the business, because of asserted attentions shown Lebario's wife. The man who did the shooting is in a local hospital with a fractured jaw and lacerated scalp, the result of an attack on him by Joe Escalante, elderly father of Frank.

Lebario is reported to have shot Escalante with a rifle as the young man stepped to the door of his home in answer to Lebario's call. The elderly Escalante rushed out, overpowered Lebario and beat him over the head with the same rifle used to kill his son.

ROAD CONGRESS TO MEET IN WASHINGTON

PARIS, July 3. (AP)—The permanent committee of the International Association of Road Congresses which met last week at Chantilly has accepted the invitation of the United States to hold the next congress in Washington in 1930. The date was fixed for the second week in October. One thousand European delegates are expected to journey to Washington following the congress inspection tours will cover the United States.

Two Priests Leading Bands of Insurgents Die

Federals Win Victories in Face of Handicaps

MEXICO CITY, July 3. (AP)—Ninety-two rebels, including two priests leading the insurgents, were killed in a series of battles fought over the week-end between various insurrection groups and Federals in the States of Jalisco and Queretaro, according to official reports furnished to President Calles.

The Federals lost two officers and ten soldiers killed and twenty-three officers and men wounded.

SOME EXECUTED

Ten prisoners were executed. Several religious banners and church articles as well as important documents, were captured by government forces. The priests, Justino Corona and Attilano Santa Cruz, were killed with eight men when their forces clashed with Federals at the Rancho de Las Cruces in Jalisco.

According to the reports Federals were victorious in all fights, although they were outnumbered four

FROM SWELL TO SVELTE ON SOUP

Paul Whiteman Rolls Off Billows of Avoidpoids Just by Liquid Diet, and Now His 217 Pounds Make Him Look Like Shadow of His Old Self

CHICAGO, July 3. (Exclusive)—Mr. Whiteman, jazz orchestra leader, weighs 217 pounds and miscellaneous ounces today. When he was here last November he weighed 291 pounds. It is easy to perceive that Paul is just a shell of his former self.

In the interests of antiobesity Mr. Whiteman was sought in his dressing-room in the theater—a cubicle into which he admits himself with a shoeborn as well as a key—to divulge the secret.

"Soup," said Mr. Whiteman. "Just soup. And then, if you get hungry, have a bowl of soup. You may alter the diet with consommé, or a bit of bouillon, or possibly chicken gumbo."

A man who weighs 291 pounds, to one at times and the rebels had advantage of better positions and were equipped with modern war material. Thirty-four rebels were killed in a battle at Ayutla, Jalisco.

The insurgents were commanded by two priests named Perez and De la Cruz who escaped. Five prisoners were executed. The Federals lost one officer and eight soldiers killed and ten officers and men wounded.

The insurgents lost eight dead and many wounded and the Federals

Mr. Whiteman observes, gets hungry. The furnace attached to that man requires a lot of daily fuel. "I wasn't going to ruin my health with lamb chops and pineapples," said the orchestra leader, "and yet I wanted to lose some of those pounds. I thought up this soup diet by myself. It is fitting, but not heavy."

The results of the several months with the soup kitchen are interesting. Mr. Whiteman stated that he lost eight and a half inches around the waist and two and a half inches around the neck.

"I even lost a quarter of an inch around my head," he said. "I had to go out and buy several new hats. In fact, this diet was expensive—it cost me $2600 for new clothes."

At a fight at La Mesa, Jalisco, twenty-six rebels were killed when 200 attacked fifty Federals near La Gringa, Queretaro. The Federals lost one officer and two men killed and one officer and seven men wounded.

Defenders Say War With Italy Avoided

VIENNA, July 3. (AP)—Publication of Chancellor Seipel's recent note to Premier Mussolini of Italy, regarded as a renunciation of Austria's claims for the South Tyrol as the price for resumption of normal diplomatic relations between the two countries, has caused an outburst of indignation in the Austrian press.

Among the headlines which are used today, are: "Seipel Kneels Before Mussolini and Licks Italy's Boots," "Austria's Ignominious Surrender," "Seipel Makes Strategic Retreat" and "Seipel Bets Italy's Forgiveness."

The only newspaper containing an indignant note is the Neueste Wiener Zeitung, which says that the Chancellor was forced to make terms with Premier Mussolini because the relations between the two countries since the withdrawal of the Italian Minister to Austria last March contained an element of real war.

"It would be quite ridiculous for poor dismembered Austria with 6,000,000 inhabitants to challenge a mighty power and great state like Italy, which could crush the dwarfed Austrian republic overnight," says the newspaper.

Bitter disappointment and criticism also is expressed in the Austrian South Tyrol, where the newspapers and even some local officials deplore the Chancellor's action in what they regard as throwing away the last chance of the Austrian and German residents of the Tyrol to obtain the right to use their own language in their schools, churches and commercial life.

American motion-picture films made in a year would stretch 200,000 miles.

STAGE LINES OF WEST TO BAND

Association to be Formed of 1200 Companies

Meeting Called for August 16 at Long Beach

Concerted Drive Planned for Federal Regulation

SAN FRANCISCO, July 3. (AP)—The organization of western motor-stage companies will be effected within the near future, it was announced today by Arthur H. Samish, secretary-manager of the Motor Carriers' Association of California.

The proposal will include in the organization's membership 1200 certified stage lines, operating in eleven western states and the headquarters will be in San Francisco.

A conference for the purpose of launching the organization has been called by the California association to meet at the Pacific-Southern Exposition at Long Beach on August 16, next.

Samish said "the necessity of obtaining some system of Federal regulation for interstate motor-carrier traffic has occasioned a demand among western operators for a central organization to report their combined strength in addressing common problems."

YOUNG DELAYS SESSION ORDER

No Need for Hasty Call of Legislature Seen

Tax-Law Change Agreement
First Must Be Reached

Governor Wants Business
Men to Take Action

SACRAMENTO, July 3. (AP)—Business interests affected by the tax system being worked out by State Tax Commission and the commission must agree upon proposed changes and the wisdom and necessity of a special session of the Legislature to frame the required constitutional amendment before Gov. Young will call the lawmakers.

The Governor indicated in a statement here today following an announcement in San Francisco yesterday by Irving Martin, chairman of the tax commission, that the commission will recommend the calling of a special session to prepare the constitutional amendments for submission at the November election.

The Governor indicated he believes any special session of the Legislature called solely for the purpose of ratifying the proposed machinery for collecting funds rather than to afford the varied interests an opportunity to thresh out their disagreements.

The Governor also indicated he believes there is no need for hasty action from a financial standpoint as the present surplus is sufficiently large to guarantee payment of all expenses and could be conserved so as to permit a careful study of the whole situation so that the State's taxation may be stabilized for a long time to come.

The Governor, however, has not received the report the commission is preparing on bank and intangible securities taxes, but he has received a letter from the tax commission asking for a statement regarding the State's financial outlook, "with particular reference to the adequacy of the revenue now accruing to the State to meet its obligations in prospect." His reply to the commission's request has not been completed.

GOV. YOUNG'S MOVE
DECLARED ANTICIPATED

SAN FRANCISCO, July 3. (Exclusive)—Gov. Young's demand for an agreement between the California Tax Commission and business interests affected before he calls a special session of the State Legislature to consider new methods of taxing banks and intangible securities, has been anticipated, it was stated here today.

No sooner had word been received from Sacramento regarding the attitude of the Governor than Irving Martin, chairman of the Tax Commission, announced that the members of the commission and various bankers already are working in harmony on a comprehensive study of the situation and proposed legislative changes.

WILD TIGRESS STARTS TROUBLE IN RAMPAGE ABOUT PET SHOP

JERSEY CITY (N. J.) July 3. (AP)—A 500-pound untrained Singapore tigress, ripped away the steel bars of her cage in the wild animals building of Henry Bartels early today and roamed for several hours within the building, terrorizing scores of other animals and birds before she was killed. George Bianty, big-game hunter and collector for the New York Zoological Society, shot the animal.

Walker Maestri, youthful night caretaker, narrowly escaped the beast. After he discovered her attacking a camel he took refuge in the office.

Police reserves of the city, armed with automatic rifles, were dispatched to the scene, although at no time, according to the officer in charge, was there any danger of the beast's escaping from the building. Bartels is a dealer in wild animals. He said the tigress always had been very wild and had been let pretty much alone. He valued her at $1250.

She ate three or four chickens before being killed.

Cabinet Gives Warning to

by Royalist Crowds

(Copyright, 1928, by the Chicago Tribune)

BERLIN, July 3. (Exclusive)—Prussia's Republican Cabinet held an extraordinary meeting yesterday to discuss ways and means of keeping the former Crown Prince out of the limelight. He is on full display again after study men of the veterans' organization, the Steel Helmet, carried the slim, silver-haired Friedrich Wilhelm on their shoulders, showing him to the masses of Steel Helmet men assembled for the occasion at Oppenheim's hall, an hour's ride from the Prince's castle. They dutifully paid homage to the former Crown Prince while their leader, Herr Seidte, declared the time has come for his men to "prepare to play the political role in Germany."

A further Royalist touch was added to the ceremony by the former Crown Prince, who was smiling in the background while his eldest son, the presumptive pretender to the throne, stood at his side.

BUFFALO, July 3. (AP)—George Hibbard, 70 years of age, author, artist and lawyer, died here today. One of his paintings, "The Hope Beyond the Clouds," was exhibited at the National Academy of Design in New York.

When the German republic permitted the former Crown Prince to return to Germany from exile he gave him the word of honor to abstain from political activities. The government holds that the Oppenheimer case is in violation of that agreement. It was a natural consequence of the victory of the Communists in the elections last May.

The government sent a special emissary to the former Crown Prince to warn him to "stick to golf and tennis and his other pastimes" and threatened him with expulsion if necessary.

YES, WE'VE NO EXCESS PROFITS

We've Interest and Taxes But No Overgrown Surplus

Thus Sang Power Utilities of Wisconsin Association

Trade Body Told of Ditties
to Spread Propaganda

WASHINGTON, July 3. (AP)—Song was added to the list of mediums used by power utilities groups to express their viewpoint, with introduction today in the Federal Trade Commission's investigation of utilities publicity methods of a song book compiled by the Wisconsin Utilities Association, for use at its meetings.

Comprised of numerous periods of familiar airs, the booklet was described by John N. Gaddy, secretary of the association, as intended "for public-utility meetings." Several of the ditties were read by Robert K. Healy, counsel for the commission, during examination of Gaddy.

"NO EXCESS PROFITS"
One, marked to be sung to the tune of "Yes, We Have No Bananas," read: "Yes, we have no excess profits. No overgrown surplus today. We're interest unceasing and taxes increasing. And all of the help to pay. We're an old-fashioned commission. That holds rates down in precision. But, yes, we've no excess profits. No overgrown surplus today. Other mediums brought out previously in the investigation as used by the power utilities have included pamphlets, radio, college courses, school text books, moving pictures, editorial and amateur theatricals.

OWNERSHIP INCLUDED
Healy said earlier in the day brought out that a survey of civics textbooks used in Wisconsin schools had been conducted by an association subcommittee, the report of which stressed that "points in connection with municipal ownership are missing from all these texts."

The song book included a verse on this topic, as well, which read: "The kind politician wants State ownership. Of all water powers, but here is the slip. He's had no experience—poor foolish one. So his costs include only the generation."

Regarding the textbook survey, Gaddy wrote in May, 1926, to J. B. Sheridan, secretary of the Missouri Committee on Public Utility Information, that "we have known for some time that your committee was the first to get into this matter and we have always made it clear that we were no discoverers, but rather, boosters."

GOOD TEXTS PUBLISHED
"The National Association of Railway and Utility Commissioners are very much interested," wrote Gaddy, "and I believe a national committee is doing a little, but not much. In the meantime we are seeing that a few good texts are being published and getting a little sentiment developed around the State for better texts."

Money to finance three $500 fellowships for engineering study at the University of Wisconsin is furnished by the Wisconsin Utilities Association, Gaddy testified.

"We pay the money to the board of regents of the university," Gaddy said, adding that disposition of the fund is left entirely to the university authorities.

NONOGENARIAN SAVED
AS FIRE COMES NEAR

SAN FRANCISCO, July 3. (AP)—Mrs. Mary Caughlin, 90 years of age, was carried out of her flat today through dense smoke as a two-story apartment building was destroyed by fire. Fire officials said they believe the blaze was caused by fire crackers set off by a group of children celebrating the Fourth of July a day early.

Association Directors Seek Change for 1929

Good Ball Park is Offered to Boss of Stars

PHOENIX (Ariz.) July 3. (AP)—At a special meeting of the Phoenix Athletic Association this afternoon, directors agreed to extend an invitation to the Hollywood club of the Pacific Coast League to make its home in Phoenix at the beginning of the 1929 season.

To acquaint himself with the conditions of the city, William H. Lane of the Hollywood club, who is the manager of the team, is expected to arrive in Phoenix tomorrow.

The Phoenix Athletic Association, which is composed of the city's leading sportsmen, is expected to vote on the matter tomorrow.

HITTERS MAINTAIN PACE

Tradition of Baseball Regarding Star Batsmen Being Upheld by Veterans and Rookies

BY GEORGE MORIARTY
Manager of the Detroit Baseball Club

(Copyright, 1929, by North American Newspaper Alliance.)
NEW YORK, July 3. (Exclusive)—"Once a hitter, always a hitter," is a tradition in baseball. This saying is substantiated when box scores are consulted.

Bobby Veach, once a Detroit Tiger, has been hitting at a vicious clip for Toledo. Veach was always a powerful batter, and the twilight of his career has not retarded his vigor with the ash.

Pat Duncan, Minneapolis, formerly of the Cincinnati Reds, is another veteran who has been slugging home runs. He seldom has a bad season, and he is still hitting with the force of a mallet.

Many other old-timers are having a good season. They love to take their swings. Here and there a youngster is bobbing up to challenge the prestige of the veterans.

Foremost among them is the rookie, Kress, of the St. Louis Browns. If anyone has told you this young man doesn't take a courageous "country cut" at the ball, you have been misinformed.

Kress sticks gamely to the top of the column with such hitting lights as Ruth, Gehrig and Gaudin. Oddly, the St. Louis Browns are not doing as well as he is in the minors. Fonseca, Cleveland, has also made a name as a free-swinging, clean-cut hitter. He has always been a strong batsman, but his fling at the first-base job has given him added confidence with the bat.

In the National League, young Melvin Ott is making an earnest bid to stay among the 250 fellows. Kress, he has unusual natural ability at bat. Bismette, Brooklyn, is another newcomer who faces big-league pitching with a steady eye and a wicked cut. Connie Mack of the Athletics, points to Orvill and Fox as sluggers of a new crop, and Stanley Harris, Washington, invites you to look at a youngster named Barnes when the ash is struck.

Callaghan, Cincinnati, is doing a man-sized job against all kinds of slams, and O'Donoghue, Boston, after many trials under the big top, seems to have settled as a slugger of the foremost type. He has been a convincing part of the McGraw attack all season so far.

PICINICH SURPRISES
Val Picinich, leading backstop of the Cincinnati Club, has furnished the surprise of the season as a batsman. During his American League days he was noted for his mediocre hitting. But his bat this year is as big a help as his back-stopping.

Currier of the Cubs, seems to be the disappointment of the accepted sluggers, but he has several months ahead in which to climb back.

FIREMEN TO DEFEND TRACK
Laurels Soon

The third annual track meet to be staged by the Recreation and Athletic Association of Southern California will be held on the Union Pacific Athletic Field at Ninth and Spence streets, the 29th inst.

This meet will determine the industrial championship for Southern California, and is open to all bona-fide employees of industrial, public utilities, municipal and county organizations.

The Los Angeles Fire Department track team captured the Maurice De Mond trophy last year, and will be out in full force again this year to defend the championship. As an added feature to the track meet, a series of events will be staged for the girls, who will compete for the Reinheimer trophy.

Blankets have been mailed out to team and desired to enter may do so by calling E. M. Reinheimer, Mutual 9211, Station 2140, who is chairman of the track and field committee.

NATIONALIST MEETS
PINTO IN FISTIC MILE

STOCKTON, July 3. (AP)—"Roper" Heinemann's special Fourth of July card party tomorrow afternoon will be featured by a ten-round main event between Charlie Pinto, banished of New York, vs. Young Nationalist, Los Angeles, last year's six-round winner.

There will also be two four-round events between Tim McDermott, Stockton, vs. Babe Jackson, Sacramento, at 112 pounds, and Jerry Peterson, Lodi, vs. Young Sousa, Alameda, 145 pounds.

LE PAGE IN NEW FINALS
Revived after a faint on the court, Arthur Le Page, Prescott boy who classed as a Phoenix Junior College tennis player, went out H. W. Robinson, former Intercontinental, Southern California and Northwest tennis champion, to earn his place in tomorrow's finals of the Northern Arizona tournament held in connection with the frontier days sports event.

Le Page won a toughly fought five-match set, 6-4, 3-6, 6-0, 6-8 and 7-5. He meets Harold Torrea of Tucson, present Arizona and southwestern champion.

TUNNEY HALED TO COURT AGAIN

Champion Sued by Max Hoff Over Contract

Boo Boo Claims Portion of Gene's Earnings

Made Bargain With Gibson Before Title Fight

NEW YORK, July 3. (AP)—Gene Tunney, heavyweight champion, was in the courts again today. The first reader of fiction who does battle for his heavy-lifted crown here with Tom Heeney on July 26 today opposed that staunch Philadelphia sportsman, Moxie (Boo Boo) Hoff, who has been represented by Ben Herzberg, Herzberg argued against a motion before Supreme Court Justice Townley to have Hoff's suit against the champion dismissed.

Boo Boo contends he made a contract with Billy Gibson, Tunney's manager, the night before the Philadelphia scrap in which Gene took the title away from Jack Dempsey, calling for 10 per cent of all Tunney's earnings in eight bouts.

He said he paid $20,000 to Gibson for the concession.

George Whitehead of Chadbourne, Stansfield and Levy, Tunney's attorney, insisted the "contract" was merely a bet which Hoff is now trying to "decade."

The mysterious "contract" argued Whitehead, was made on the night before the fight and was therefore a bet on a future event. If Tunney won, Hoff would get some money; if Tunney lost, Hoff also lost.

As courts do not consider wagers as legal contracts, Hoff said he was "permeating his bet to make it look like a contract," the attorney declared.

Herzberg got exception to such a dismissal.

"Mr. Whitehead has run amuck in his statements," he said. "He may be surprised to know that there is a writing expressing the terms of the agreement, signed by Gibson, Tunney and Hoff."

Whitehead said he had seen the paper and while Tunney's manager on it, he had not signed it, he declared.

Herzberg said after the hearing that Gibson at the time needed $20,000 to swing a real estate deal.

There is still a thick air of mystery about the entire transaction for after the time Hoff agreement was supposed to have been made Gibson had just made a new agreement with Tunney by which he was to receive a third of all Tunney's earnings and 10 per cent of this was to go to Hoff, Gibson admits, but Hoff denies it.

Justice Townley reserved decision on the action.

Suit Against McLarin Now Before Judge

NEW YORK, July 3. (AP)—Jimmy McLarin, the baby-faced Californian who turned most of the light-weight division top-heavy with his brash right hand, asked the State Supreme Court today not to force him to testify as to his disposition as to whether he prefers to knock his opponents out rather than point them.

A court order, obtained by Hjalmer Mogren, a sparring partner of Jimmy's, for $500,000, was broken by his law during McLarin's practice for knocking out Sid Terris, brought the smiling Celt into court to answer to these questions and others before the trial itself began. Jimmy told the court it was easy to see that these questions were points Mogren had to prove in court. No action was taken.

Among the questions Hjalmer set forth for Jimmy to answer was whether the Californian seeks to win his fights by what is called a "knockout" or by what is called a "decision." McLarin's answer was that he would answer to these questions and others before the trial itself began.

RAJAH CLIMBS
Rogers Hornsby, safely in first place in the big six, set out yesterday upon a drive to lift his average above the 100 mark again.

The Rajah got four out of eight in a double-header at Boston and climbed four points to 394, as all the others slipped or stood still.

Cobb alone excepted. The Braves nevertheless lost two to the Phils while all this was going on.

Paul Winter slipped back 2 points to 359. Ruth dropped 2 to 323 and Hellmuth lost 3 to 290.

Frank Ryan's place in the first division fairly safe for a few days at least. He is hitting 331 to Ruth's 323.

The standing:

Hornsby, Braves, 394; Cobb, Phils, 393; Rogers, Phils, 392; Evers, Phils, 391; Gehrig, Phils, 390; Pate, Phils, 389; Smith, Phils, 388; Baker, Phils, 387; Carey, Phils, 386; Lamm, Phils, 385; Miller, Phils, 384; Commissioner Sends Governor Withdrawal

Post to Devote Time to Business Interests

Army Officer Once Board's Stormy Petrel

BY PAUL LOWRY

ST. LOUIS, July 3. (P)—The St. Louis Athletic Commission, has resigned its post.

His letter of resignation, was forwarded to Gov. Young Monday night.

Although it has been known for some time that Strelinger desired to step out of office, his action came like a bolt out of the clear sky.

He could not be reached last night for an explanation, but he has confirmed that he is in connection with the athletic agency which was organized for this territory.

Strelinger's friends he admitted that he was not in this time there was a possibility for his resignation.

Strelinger refused to resign until he had received a check for $10,000, which he had received from the state.

Strelinger's resignation was not until everything was settled, as it was for several months, did he want to leave his position.

Strelinger was originally appointed for a one-year term by the legislature, and his resignation was accepted for three years.

Strelinger's resignation was accepted for three years, and he will be succeeded by the same source.

LA SALLE WINS BOUT BY KAYOE

Johnny Adams Falls Victim of Bobby's Wallops

End Comes in Fifth Round of Olympic Main Event

Cohen Stopped by Baby Sal in Sensational Fight

BY KAY OWE

Two scheduled ten-round fights as diversified as the poles in technique both ended in the same manner at the Olympic main event.

Olympic last night—knockouts in the fifth round.

Baby Sal's victory over Mickey Cohen of Denver was of the technical variety, a n d wound up with Cohen on his feet.

Cohen's fight with Bobby LaSalle, planted Johnny Adams on the floor with a series of punches.

Adams stayed there until the "ten" count.

Of the two bouts the so-called semi-wind-up was miles ahead of the main event for speed, punch and action.

It was nip and tuck until Referee Charley Randolph stepped between the two fighters and raised Sal's hand when Cohen twice refused to uncover and come out of his corner and fight.

AN OLD TRICK

Cohen did not quit, and he looked merely as if the boy had been hurt badly enough to cover up until he had expended the fury of his attack.

This is an old ring trick, and as Cohen had come off the ropes fighting in the previous round after being chased to cover it appeared that he would have done the same.

But Cohen was not so sure of himself this time, and he was forced to quit.

On rather short notice, the Rockaway (L. I.) stadium signed Corporal Ray Selway, recognized in New York State as the flyweight champion, to defend his title against Primo Grande, Filipino challenger from Buffalo, over the twelve-round route Friday night. The match was approved.

Walker's rally into the light-heavyweight ranks was definitely halted when the commission told Pugny that the middleweight champion must scale 160 pounds for a match with Leo Lomski of Aberdeen, Wash. Walker sought the match at 165 pounds.

Patterson and Hawkes Defeat Borotra-La Coste Tennis Doubles Team in Thriller Abroad

WIMBLEDON (Eng.) July 3. (P)—The French musketeers who have been sweeping nearly all before them in the Wimbledon tennis tournament struck a snag today when one of their crack doubles teams, Jean Borotra and Rene La Coste, fell before the veteran Australian pair, Gerald Patterson and John B. Hawkes. They waged a sensational four-set struggle that was decided by scores of 6-3, 5-7, 6-4, 9-7.

Meanwhile the American champions and defending Wimbledon titleholders, Big Bill Tilden and Frank Hunter, finished off a slow start, finished with a brilliant flourish to conquer the English Davis Cup team of George Crookes and Cyril Farnes, in another four-set affair, 4-6, 6-1, 6-3, 6-2.

The other American combination, composed of George Lott and John Hennessey, were on the high road to another clean-cut victory when rain halted their match with the young Australians, Cummins and Moon, after two sets. The score at that time was 6-1, 6-1.

The Australians, however, furnished the big thrill of the day, upsetting the French stars in a match that signalled the return to form of Patterson, the big hard-hitting Aussie, after a display of mediocre tennis all spring.

Patterson and his cannonball service were the dynamic factors in the victory although the left-handed Hawkes, long an able doubles player, gave his big brother fine assistance.

The team that has figured in many a Davis Cup battle in the United States and elsewhere within the past six years, fought for every point against the brilliant French pair in a contest that was unusually close-fought, punctuated with sparkling play.

Both Patterson and Watson joined working out at the stadium, but they confined themselves to jogging about, putting off all strenuous training until tomorrow.

Large groups of sprinters, including Frank Wykoff, Nat George and Al Miller, worked out. Bud Houser also arrived on the scene, but the Californian discus star spent the day getting acclimated.

On rather short notice, the Rockaway (L. I.) stadium signed Corporal Ray Selway, recognized in New York State as the flyweight champion, to defend his title against Primo Grande, Filipino challenger from Buffalo, over the twelve-round route Friday night. The match was approved.

EARLE SANDE RIDES KIEV TO BRILLIANT WIN AT AQUEDUCT

NEW YORK, July 3. (P)—Earle Sande stole the show from the horses at Aqueduct today.

The veteran jockey rode his first winner in weeks when he brought J. E. Widener's Kiev home first in the Dominant Handicap, $1200 added, the feature attraction of the day. As Kiev flashed past the finish line the crowd broke into cheers, more in honor of Sande than the 4-year-old son of Stefan the Great and Krona.

At that it was only Sande's great ride that gave Kiev his chance to win. The Doroed Shable's Extreme apparently had the race won going down the stretch when he suddenly faltered. Quick to take advantage of this break, Sande applied the whip to Kiev and the gray colt responded with a burst of speed that just nipped Extreme. Algonquin was third, with Mont Gerrat, the favorite, fourth. Time for the mile was 1m. 38.2-5a.

Both Squads Have Hopes of Facing Seals for Flag

Peters and Wright to Hurl Twin Bill for Seraphs

Howard Burkett Gets Chance at Shortstop Position

BY BOB RAY

Marty Krug's Angels, who now have a right to be once more ambitious, and Buddy Ryan's Solons from Sacramento, who would up in third place at the half-way mark, will celebrate Independence Day the opening of the second half of the Coast League race by engaging in a doubleheader at Wrigley Field this afternoon.

Now that the first half of the race is out of the way, both the Seraphs and Solons are starting with renewed hope in an endeavor to win the second half and battle the Seals in the play-off for the pennant. Both squads believe that had the breaks not gone against them they would have won the first half and they are hoping for better luck in the coming campaign.

TWIN BILL TODAY

Today's twin bill will start at the customary time for double baseball games, 1:30 o'clock, and the public is requested to refrain from tossing firecrackers at the players. NEW YORK, July 3. (AP)—The Giants nosed out the Robins, 8 to 7, in the eleventh inning of a new game here today to run the New York winning streak to eight straight. The home team took a lead of five in the first inning when Lindstrom and Jackson hit homers, but the Robins poked away at Alridge until they were in a position to gain an edge of 7 to 6 on a three-run rally in the ninth.

Hogan drove in the tying run in the ninth and the home team took a lead of five in the first inning when Lindstrom and Jackson hit homers, but the Robins poked away at Alridge until they were in a position to gain an edge of 7 to 6 on a three-run rally in the ninth.

Jackson's home run cost Brooklyn the services of Al Tyson for the rest of the season and perhaps for all time, according to physicians. Just as Tyson was about to catch the Giant star's long liner, Ruben Brewer crashed into him, and both players tumbled in a heap as the ball sailed safely to the fence for a homer. It was found that Tyson had suffered a compound fracture of the left leg just above the ankle.

HOW DECATHLON STARS STAND

Here is how the twenty-two picked all-around performers representing all sections of the country finished the first half of the ten-event decathlon at Philadelphia yesterday:

Jim Stewart, Los Angeles A. C. first, 2997.45 points; Bernard Berlinger, University of Pennsylvania, second, 2971.55; Ken Doherty, Cadillac A. C. Detroit, third, 2893.85; Leo J. Sexton, New York A. C. fourth, 2792.75; West Engleman, Jr., South Dakota State College, fifth, 2748.44; Albert LeFebvre, L.A.A.C. sixth, 2708.98; Jess Mortenson, L.A.A.C. seventh, 2699.79; A. J. Plankly, St. Alphonsus, eighth, 2691.19; Harry Wilpen, Newark A. C. tenth, 2584.35; Tom Churchill, University of Oklahoma, eleventh, 2516.21; Lloyd Kenney, Central Missouri State College, twelfth, 2502.36; Norman Ham, N.Y.A.C. thirteenth, 2502.80; Dan Kinney, Chicago A. A. fourteenth, 2502.80; Harry G. Frieda, I.A.C. fifteenth, 2503.31; Frosty Peters, University of Illinois, sixteenth, 2371.46; Robert Todd, University of Indiana, seventeenth, 2327.52; Robert E. Lee, Boston A. C. eighteenth, 2319.94; Victor Weisel, University of Oregon, nineteenth, 2300.53; Paul D. Heydrick, Charleston, W. Va., twentieth, 2252.48; James Deering, unattached and Falt Elkins, N.Y.A.C., withdrew.

JIM STEWART LEADS IN DECATHLON TRIALS

decathlon Jim Stewart of the University of Southern California, is leading the field by a small margin Jim Elliott and Duke Edwards, both of the University of Southern California, are in second and third place, respectively. The remaining members of the L.A.A.C. triumvirate, are in strong position in sixth and seventh places. All the rest of the field are in the last half of the trials.

To get back to the 400 meters the boys ran two heats today and will run a semifinal and a final tomorrow. The boys are making anybody else of quarter-mile if he isn't already that way. Spencer drew a new heat, in the first round, and is saving himself for the second round.

Vict Williams of Compton had the tough luck to draw the fast first heat which was won by Barbuti of Syracuse in 48.24. Vic galloped the lap in 48 flat and took fourth place. Fortunately he was the fastest fourth place runner in the quarter final. In this event he again drew the toughest heat of the afternoon and ran fifth in 49.40, which put him out of the running for a medal.

When they got around to the quarter final the men in the first one were Barbuti, L.A.A.A. champion; Spencer, N.C.A.A. champion; Herman Phillips, a former champion; Walter of Northwestern, who has been flitting with 48.4 all year; a dusky gentleman from Detroit, named LeRoy Williams, who has been flitting with 48.4 all year; and Vic Williams.

HIT AWFUL PACE

The boys hit an awful pace and as they hit the stretch an awful battle ensued between Barbuti and Phillips. They were in adjoining lanes on the outside, and all the rest of the runners were a yard or so back and all six of them were in a tight pack.

Barbuti was in the lead, and he was passing everybody up and forgoing to the front he spilled over the last hurdle. It was so obvious that Coach Robertson allowed him to run the semifinal anyway and Dick, after setting a hot pace three-quarters of the way, missed his step on the last turn.

Barbuti was the first casualty of the afternoon, running fourth in his heat.

Bob Maxwell ran a couple of nice races, holding his stride well all around the course. He took a close second to Cubel, the Iowa captain, in a 54.4 heat, then finished in a close third in the record-breaking semifinal in which Cubel ran 53.5-5.4, and Maxwell, who was taking it easy, was not over a second behind him.

EXPECT GREAT RACES

In the 400-meter events the racing promises to be of a sensational nature. Alderman, who ran 48.4 last week, obviously was saving himself today, with two more heats coming up tomorrow. Ray Barbuti, Herman Phillips, Joe Tierney, Deird and the rest of the war horses are certainly in fine shape, and Spencer, while he didn't look right up to snuff, has a chance. The prize dark horse on the day was a tall, powerful gentleman named Emil Jacobson of Alameda Poly, who ran 49.3-5.4 in his heat and 48.5-5.4 in his semifinal and wasn't slowing hard. He looks like the boy to beat tomorrow.

In the 400-meter hurdles F. Morgan Taylor and Johnny Gibson, who are regarded as the whole show in these parts, are going to get an awful run from a wheel of Iowa and Bob Mayer well of the L.A.A.C. There is just one race to run and it ought to be a pin-up today, but it is an awful finisher; the other three are all very good. It will be surprising if the time doesn't go under 53.4 tomorrow.

The decathlon doing its stuff in the Big Jim Stewart and Bernard Berlinger, the sensational University of Pennsylvania freshman, engaged in a terrific duel all the afternoon, with Stewart's fine quarter-mile gallop in 53.1-5.4 giving him a slight edge. Jess Mortenson slipped just a trifle and Al LeFebvre skidded badly in the shot, but they ended the day in sixth and seventh places, and well within striking distance of the leaders. Vic Weisel, the all-around demon from the University of Oregon, didn't do himself justice in the first few events, being well down the totals, but Bill Hayward thinks he will do better tomorrow, as the events are more to his liking.

Berlinger and Stewart engaged in a terrific high-jumping duel in the Pennsylvania boy clearing 41.1-in. while Stewart got one inch less. The Pennsylvania youngster likewise beat Big Jim by a foot in the shot and the broad jump, but Stewart was there with plenty of points in the 100 meters and the 200 meters. Curiously Brother Berlinger is not so good on foot.

Sticking around this promises to be a battle royal. Berlinger is a sensational pole vaulter, and is pretty good in everything else, and Stewart is a good runner, and is a good keeper ahead of him. Al LeFebvre is generally regarded as the best bet other than Stewart to get on the team in the first event today, but he is a good runner, and is a good keeper ahead of him.

Coach Comstock has decided that sticking around this promises to be a battle royal. Berlinger is a sensational pole vaulter, and is pretty good in everything else, and Stewart is a good runner, and is a good keeper ahead of him.

Huguen Tie Score in Ninth and Then Win Out

Athletics Annex Close One from Red Sox, 4-3

Chisox Nab Third Straight from Browns, 8-7

WASHINGTON, July 3. (AP)—The Yankees swept their series with the Senators by speeding home ahead 7 to 6 today, in the eleventh inning of the second clash. The Senators got to Herb Pennock for eleven hits, the eleven which were bunched in the fifth for four runs, but he held out until his mates rescued the game for him.

Yankee bats tied the score at 6 to 6 with two out in the ninth, singles by Koenig and Paschal grouped around a pass to Gehrig. They won with two gone in the eleventh on the same combination. Paschal drawing the pass in between singles by Gehrig and Lase.

Hadley gave the Huguenats seven hits, but scattered them well enough to prevent his game from slipping into the eleventh. He was bunched in the seventh for a strike called by Umpire Hildebrand, and Charlie Gehringer was removed from the coaching line for pointed comment on the affair. Score:

EUROPEANS SURPRISED BY ANZAC

Patterson and Haucke Over Bororo-Lacoste Team at Wimbledon

Pat Patterson and Haucke, who were the last to play in the final, were the only ones to win. Patterson's service, at its best, was the deciding factor, especially in the final set.

Lock of the draw brings the American duo into contact with the British pair, who were the last to play in the final. Patterson's service, at its best, was the deciding factor, especially in the final set.

SPEED PILOTS TO RACE TODAY

Less than twenty-eight miles and will occupy the first hour of the day. The race will start at 10 a. m. and the first race will be the 100-mile race.

Pete Nelson in his new special, a 1927 Buick, was the fastest in the race. He won the 100-mile race in 1 hour, 12 minutes and 12 seconds.

"LEADS 'EM ALL"

Takes Low-Gross Honors at Girard; Rio Hondo Favorites Survive

R. Hutchinson of the Hollywood Country Club, won low-gross prizes in the first annual invitation golf tournament under the auspices of the May Company Club.

Playing in her first tournament, Mrs. L. H. Howell of Girard shot a 90 to win first low-gross honors. Mrs. Hollywood of Potrero, had a 92 for second. Miss Johnson of Chevy Chase turned in the prize-winning low-net card with the second place going to Miss Elaine Keys of Griffith Park.

Seattle Loses to Bells, 6-2

SEATTLE, July 3. (AP)—The San Francisco Missions handed Seattle a 6-2 whipping here today to usher in the second half of the Pacific Coast baseball season.

The game was played under a sky that threatened to rain out the game at any moment, but in spite of the fact, a fair-sized crowd was in attendance.

ABBOTT AND JACKSON IN THE AT MONTICLO

T. C. Abbott and C. H. Jackson tied for first prize in the match play against par golf tournament at the Monticlo Country Club.

GOLFING STARS IN EXHIBITION MATCH

Two of the Southland's most promising junior golfers, Charles Seaver and Fay Coleman, took on two of the old guard yesterday.

What Makes Opportunity

A coming together of "opportune" conditions—plus the foresight to recognize and the courage to quickly take advantage of them—That makes opportunity.

In Los Angeles such contacts are made through the Classified "Business Opportunities" columns of The Times.

PAUL LOWEY

THE CASE OF MR. CUBEL

YOUNG Mr. Cubel, one of the corn-fed boys from Iowa, seems to have been the big noise, or the loud bang, or what have you, during the running of the semifinals heats of the 400-meter hurdles at Philadelphia yesterday.

His 52.2-5s. is the fastest any man ever has galloped the barriers in that long, heart-pounding race with the exception of Mr. F. Morgan Taylor, who did the same thing at Paris in the Olympics four years ago.

A NEW YEAR'S DAY OFFER

As far as "Fox" Stanton of Caltech is concerned there is no use worrying about the identity of the next New Year's Day football rivals at Pasadena.

A DECIDED FRENCH TINGE

EXPERTING on the Davis Cup battle this year seems to develop a purely French atmosphere. It seems that if the venerable Mr. Tilden is the only American who can win his way into the semifinals at Wimbledon there isn't much use of America hoping to lift the cup this year.

FIDEL LA BARBA

FIDEL LA BARBA was nominated for the Collegiate Hall of Fame in the August College Humor. "He fought his way up to be the world's flyweight champion; he went from the ring to Leland Stanford; and just recently he tried his luck at matrimony by marrying Marian de Beck, former wife of a cartoonist," writes the magazine author.

Another Declaration of Independence

CHUCKLES from LIFE

Ballads of Old-Time Dramas
Whither, on Stry or Elysian sea, Have strayed those lines of the old-time show?
Say them with rue and with rosemary:
"Your wife? Never! I spurn you, Oo!"
"Hound, you'll live to regret that blow!"
"What! Not dead? Ralph Brookfield here!"
"Till deck you with gems from head to toe!"
Where are the lines of yester-year?
"We call her de Rose of our Alley, Oes!"
Ain't she a sight for de angels, though?"
"Great Ood, the switch—if my hands were free—"
"Who were my parents? I don't know."
I was cast ashore in the cold and snow,
And Uncle Dave kept the lighthouse near.
Hearts and Flowers, Professor—slow!
Where are the lines of yester-year?

"Aha, my pretty, one, trapped, I see:
Sign the deed, or my men will throw
Your meddlesome lover who strove with me
Over the edge of the mine-shaft.
So
Dale Bloodgood deals with his every foe!"
"I go to fight for my country, dear.
"Can you close your heart to a mother's woe?"
Where are the lines of yester-year?
L'Envoi
Though her raiment's coarse and her station's low,
I love her, father, and hold her peer
To the proudest duchess in Rotten Row!"
Where are the lines of yesteryear?
KENNETH ALLAN ROBINSON

A barless fishhook has been invented. It is doubtful, however, whether such consideration will spread to the point where a dividend-paying oil stock will be devised.

Bank and Oil Shares Stage Recovery on Lowering of Call Money Rate

BY HOWARD C. KEGLEY

The prospect that W. W. Stabler, one of the best-known and most persistent wildcaters in California, may finally have struck a real pay formation is indicated by the test of his Tejon No. 1 well in the Comanche Point district, which Stabler reported yesterday had blown out during a production test, showing every indication of the presence of oil in commercial quantities.

Mr. Stabler has several sections under lease in the Tejon district, and drilled his well to 2022 feet, passing through ninety-nine feet of sand showing a good out. It is said the well struck sand at about 1200 feet, where he set a string of sand water casing. When he was ready for the test the Stabler drilled out five feet below and one-half mile casing, and the well blew all the sand out of the hole, and spouted mud, water and oil with heavy gas for several hours. At the end of that time it became apparent that the water had broken in, and the well was killed for another cement job.

From the showing of oil during the test, Mr. Stabler is confident that he has a producing well, provided only that the water can be shut off. The oil tests 40 deg. gravity, it is said, which is much higher than any previous showings found in the Comanche Point district.

The Tejon No. 1 is the Stabler's third try for production in the Comanche Point district. The first well was drilled about five years ago by the Comanche Point Oil Company, which struck granules at about 2240 feet. This well was about one mile east of the present well. The Globe Petroleum Corporation drilled a hole about two and one-half miles south of the Tejon test, to 2600 feet, getting a fair showing of heavy oil at 1640 feet, which did not prove commercial.

Knight Well Burns
The McKee Drilling Company's Knight No. 1 well in the deep zone at Signal Hill, one of the wells which was taken over a few weeks ago by the Hilo-American Petroleum Corporation came in yesterday, but the well had hardly started flowing when it caught fire, presumably by friction. The fire raged for about an hour before it was brought under control, and at the end of that time the derrick was damaged beyond repair. The machinery is said to be practically undamaged, and when a new derrick is built, which is expected to be within a week, it is believed the well can be brought in again, without any further delay. The test did not proceed far enough for an estimate as to the rate of production.

Starts New Well
The Chanor-Candfield Midway Oil Company has spudded in a new well in its Hobson-B lease in the Sealife field, six miles west of Ventura, according to field reports. The well, the C.M.C.O. is preparing to start another well on the B lease, and is moving in machinery and drilling equipment for its Hobson B No. 4.

The B lease, which is one of the properties the Chanor-Candfield has had under lease for the past three years is producing about 450 barrels a day, according to field reports, seventy-five barrels of this coming from the deep well Hobson B No. 1. The other producer is the Hobson B No. 2, which is producing about 275 barrels a day.

Two Prospects
The Standard Oil Company is starting two new wells on the San Gabriel lease in the old southeastern end of the Sealife field, according to officials of the company. The San Gabriel No. 17 is moving in machinery, and probably will be drilling in a few days, while a contractor is building a road into the location situated for San Gabriel No. 15.

The San Gabriel lease is the Standard's only foothold in the Sealife field, and has been the scene of several productive wells, although most of the Sealife projects failed to get much production in the upper Bixby sand, and had to go to the Selover zone.

Doherty Activity
The Petroleum Exploration Company, a Doherty organization whose principal field of activity so far has been in the Sealife field, west of Ventura, is starting a new well in the Sealife field, three miles west of Sealife on the Hickory lease, according to unofficial reports. The well was spudded in a couple of days ago.

The Hickory is the fourth test to be started in the Sealife field, which is generally regarded as a field distinct from the Sealife area, although the field is being developed very largely in conjunction with the Sealife field.

Ancient Mayan Cities Found South America

NEW ORLEANS, July 1.—Every one of three ancient cities in British Honduras is a "distinct civilization" was announced tonight by John Ball, archaeologist for the Peabody Museum at Chicago, who arrived in Belize.

The discovery was made in the course of excavations of the archeologist carried out by the Chinese government and of native Indian laborers. Mr. Thompson will be in the work which he also will require three years. Some of the relics discovered in the excavations were exhibited to Mr. Thompson said he is very interested in the native culture and the art of an ancient city. He was permitted to see the ruins of the cities, he said, and the ruins of the cities near the water.

Officers Prevent Transportation to Floating Palace of Chance Off Coast

GAMBLING-SHIP TAXIS HALTED

Long Beach Invokes Ban on Traffic to Vessel

Federal Inspection Proposed as Blow at Boat

Officials Determined to End Reign of Chance

War against operation of a floating gambling hall on the steam schooner Johanna Smith, rolling at anchor seven miles off Seal Beach and fourteen miles from the Long Beach municipal pier, was declared by Long Beach authorities yesterday by forbidding water taxis to load and discharge passengers at the municipal wharf.

The order was based on an opinion given by City Attorney Reid of Long Beach in which it was pointed out that any boat using the city pier must have a regular berth and a ticket booth. Operators of the boats plying to and from the Johanna Smith had neither of these requisites, officials contend.

TAXI SERVICE ENDS
The order was issued suddenly yesterday and placed in effect at once by Acting Police Chief Robinson who placed a guard on the wharf and halted the water taxi service.

One of the boats, returning from the schooner with a load of passengers who had gone out to witness or participate in the gambling, seeing that the officers had taken charge of their landing turned about and headed for San Pedro. While the District Attorney yesterday indicated that he is powerless to interfere with operations of the gaming ship, a new phase of the case that may bring the vessel under Federal jurisdiction was suggested by Long Beach officials.

PLAN DISCLOSED
This is that since operators of the boat assert it is at sea and beyond the jurisdiction of county or city authorities, the vessel should be made to pass inspection of Federal steamship inspectors the same as other seagoing ships.

This inspection concerns the engine room equipment, life saving facilities, and the condition of the vessel proper. It also sets forth certain requirements for experienced mariners being on the ship at all times while passengers are on board.

Investigation of this proposal will be undertaken at once by the properly constituted authorities, Long Beach officials asserted yesterday.

TWELVE-TO-ONE RATIO FIXED

Free and Unlimited Theft of Nickel Cents Sixty Days in Jail

Stealing 5 cents cost K. Yamato, a Japanese, sixty days in the County Jail yesterday when he was found guilty by Municipal Judge Leonard Wilson.

Yamato took the money, the testimony showed, from the top of a stack of newspapers. Joe Benavente, the complaining newsboy, told Judge Wilson that he had been missing money from his stack of papers for several weeks, and caught Yamato in the act of taking a 5-cent piece.

Yamato indicated that he is powerless to interfere with operations of the gaming ship, a new phase of the case that may bring the vessel under Federal jurisdiction was suggested by Long Beach officials.

PLAN DISCLOSED
This is that since operators of the boat assert it is at sea and beyond the jurisdiction of county or city authorities, the vessel should be made to pass inspection of Federal steamship inspectors the same as other seagoing ships.

ALL-YEAR CLUB PICKS NEW AIDES

Bullock and Woods Join Executive Committee to Conduct Canvass

John G. Bullock, president of Bullock's, and James Woods, vice-president and managing director of the Los Angeles Biltmore Hotel, have been elected to the executive committee of the All-Year Club's former United States Senator Frank P. Flint, chairman of the committee, announced yesterday.

Both a new members have been active in the affairs of the organization, particularly in the recent campaign for funds for its 1928 budget, through which the scenic, climatic and recreational attractions of Southern California will be exploited in leading newspapers and magazines of the nation.

One of the most intensive advertising campaigns in its history is planned by the All-Year Club during the next twelve months, and the two new members, peculiarly fitted for the task, will aid in its direction. Thousands of tourists and millions of dollars have been attracted to the Southland in the past through exploitation of a national character conducted by the club.

PROGRAM ANNOUNCED
The Playground Commission has notified the City Council that the commission will hold an athletic playground program on August 21, in the stadium at the Pacific Southwest Exposition at Long Beach.

LOVE LIVES SIXTY-SIX YEARS

Angeleno Pair Reach Notable Record

Col. and Mrs. Edwin S. Ormsby

SIXTY-SIX years of teamwork along the matrimonial highway will be celebrated today by Col. and Mrs. Edwin S. Ormsby, 721 South Rampart Boulevard, both of whom are 66 years of age. Judging from their hale and hearty appearance they have thrived on the experience. They are expecting more than 100 friends to visit them during the day.

Col. Ormsby attributes the success and happiness of their many years together partly to plenty of hard work, but largely to clear consciences in both halves of their partnership. Mrs. Ormsby asserts that she has been looking after her husband for these last sixty-six years and seems to feel that that fact may have something to do with the harmony of their existence.

POLICE ETIQUETTE STUMPED

Charles A. Lewis, 2461 Eastern avenue, is an animal trainer and Police Officer Don Oliver is willing to testify that he is an expert, at least with chimpanzees.

While Oliver was directing traffic at Eastern avenue and Huntington Drive, a passing motorist told him there was a drunken man in a car parked near by. Oliver investigated, he says, and found Lewis in the condition described. With Lewis was a large chimpanzee. Oliver started to climb into the car to drive it to the police station, but met instant objection from Lewis, according to Deputy City Prosecutor Ford Jay.

"You can't drive my car without my permission," he declared. "See 'im, Monk, see 'im."

The chimpanzee obeyed orders and Oliver beat a hasty retreat. Lewis was last conveyed to the station in the police wagon and yesterday pleaded guilty to a drunk charge before Municipal Judge C. Gray. He will be sentenced tomorrow. The fate of the chimpanzee was not recorded.

POLICE END LONG HUNTS FOR WOMEN

One Taken in Bay City and Another in El Paso on Old Bad-Check Charges Here

Ending a two-year search, police are returning to this city from San Francisco and El Paso today with two women sought since 1926 on warrants charging them with issuing bad checks.

Mrs. Bessie L. Clark, who was arrested in San Francisco under the name of Mrs. Bessie Griswell, is said to have obtained almost $100,000 through her activities while in Los Angeles.

OUTINGS WILL BE FEATURE OF DAY

Featured by an airplane race from Los Angeles to that city.

Navy battleships and other war craft were distributed up and down the Coast for the public to visit. The battleship West Virginia will hold open house at the harbor. Boats will carry visitors to and from the ship free, from the Fifth-street landing at the harbor.

Increased service on the Pacific Electric and other transportation systems was scheduled to meet the demands of holiday throngs to beaches, mountains and other points.

Forestry officials, both county and Federal, renewed their warnings yesterday that visitors to the forest reserves, either by automobile or on foot trails, will not be permitted to take firework with them. The forestry officials will follow their custom of posting reserves to relieve persons of any fireworks they may have upon entering the prohibited areas.

BANDS WILL PLAY
Band concerts in the larger parks of the city will be a feature. A radio program will be given at Westlake Park in addition to a band and professional dancing.

John Steven McGroarty will be the speaker. At Hollenbeck Park, Kilgore's concert band will play. At Lincoln Park the Golden State Band will give a program.

At Point Fermin Park, San Pedro, the Third Coast Artillery Band of Fort MacArthur will play. South Park's program will consist of a concert by Clanton's concert band.

Other parks will get the benefit of the Westlake Park program over the radio.

There will be a concert at Exposition Park on Sunday by the Los Angeles Band, with William Kilgore directing.

On Sunday, the 15th inst., the North Hollywood Band will play at Monte Vista Park in Sunland.

LONG BEACH DECREES SAFE-AND-SANE FOURTH
LONG BEACH, July 3.—A safe-and-sane Fourth of July is promised Long Beach as a result of determination by city authorities to again enforce fully the ordinance adopted three years ago, banning all fireworks from the city except those used in an official display at night.

A record crowd of out-of-town visitors is expected over the holiday, and already this afternoon hundreds of automobiles, filled with holiday folk, are pouring into Long Beach. A special program of outdoor attractions and an expensive pyrotechnic display are scheduled for the amusement zone beginning at 8 o'clock tomorrow night.

FOREST SUPERVISOR ANNOUNCES REGULATIONS
Three warnings were sent out yesterday by Federal Forestry Supervisor Cecil to persons making trips today. He pointed out that: Anyone, or any car, entering a national forest with fireworks will have them confiscated.

Anyone who slides the ranger's and discharges fireworks within a national forest will be arrested and subjected to a heavy fine.

Anyone found smoking in any national forest, or in any brush area in the county, except in regular camp grounds, will be arrested and faced with possible fine and imprisonment.

A large number of regular and special rangers have been detailed at all strategic points leading to forest and brush areas.

FINAL RITES HONOR PASTOR

home, 1740 South Ardmore avenue, climaxed an illness of several months due to a heart ailment. He leaves a widow and eight brothers.

Active pallbearers, members of a congregation, were: John H. Miller, W. A. Robertson, Weymouth Crowell, Parker C. Palmer, James G. Warren and Roy S. Battison. Honorary pallbearers included T. E. Woodruff, Richard Green, Dr. N. B. Ralston, Dr. E. Edwards, Dr. D. C. Davies, Samuel Faraci and S. A. Watkins.

The flies expect to get off on their record-breaking attempt within the next two weeks.

The plane will be a specially constructed biplane, equipped with a 270-horsepower Menasco-Salmson air-cooled motor.

DECREASE IN CRIME REVEALED

Auto Theft Leads List of Offenses, While Murder Has Decided Slump

All major crime except robberies showed a decrease during the fiscal year just ended, according to a statement issued by the statisticians attached to the chief of Police's office. Although fewer robberies and burglaries were reported here during April, May and June than in the same months in any years since 1921, there is an increase of 194 cases of robbery for the fiscal year 1927-28 over that of 1926-27, while burglaries decreased by 630.

The total arrests for all offenses save traffic in the fiscal year just ended was 74,185 as against 67,841 of the year before. This is said to increase in efficiency in the individuals in the department.

Auto theft led the list of offenses with 10,899 reported last year, as against 11,481 the year previous. Murders show a marked slump, there having been twelve less last year than the sixty-six of the year preceding.

A decrease of 6.3 per cent in felonies, reports to the police is shown in the list. The drop in burglaries was about 30 per cent, that in grand theft 7 per cent, and that of auto thefts 8.7 per cent.

The summary points out that the personnel of the police force has not increased since 1923, although the population has grown by about 200,000 with resulting increase in area to protect. Traffic problems have multiplied enormously.

Court Directs Film Director in Realty Suit

Jack Conway, motion-picture director, must be in Superior Judge Wilson's court Thursday morning whether he wants to or not, to appear in a case he started himself.

This was the desire of Judge Wilson yesterday when the case of Conway against Melville R. and Rachel G. Gabriel was called and could not proceed without Conway, who strangely enough had been subpoenaed by the defense.

Conway was not present, evidently relying on his attorney, D. Chase Rich, to proceed in his absence. Being a witness, however, was different from being just a plain plaintiff, so Judge Wilson ordered a bench warrant issued.

The suit is one Conway brought against the Gabriels asserting that he purchased Lots 16 and 17, Block 10, Tract 2444, Los Angeles on July 13, 1927 for $18,500; that at the time of the purchase the defendants agreed to remove all incumbrances and liens within sixty days; that this was not done and therefore he has no clear title and has been damaged to the amount of $10,000.

FLYERS WILL SEEK ENDURANCE RECORD

TWO HERE PLAN UNDERTAKING AT CADDO FIELD WITHIN NEXT TWO WEEKS

Capt. Roscoe Turner, one of the crack pilots in "Hell's Angels," Howard Hughes' aviation film, is completing preparations at Caddo Field for his proposed flight to establish a new world's endurance record.

Capt. Turner and Bill Gimp, another member of the "Hell's Angels" flying staff, who will act as relief pilot, took off at Caddo Field Tuesday afternoon on a test flight to San Francisco.

The flyers expect to get off on their record-breaking attempt within the next two weeks.

The plane will be a specially constructed biplane, equipped with a 270-horsepower Menasco-Salmson air-cooled motor.

The present world's record for sustained flight, held by Italian aviator, is fifty-eight hours and thirty-five minutes.

DR. DYER KEPT OUT OF FIGHT

Court Refuses to Let Preacher Join in Contest of Compelling Boards of Trustees

"Is this a private fight, or can anyone cut in?" Rev. Frank Dyer, pastor of the Wilshire Congregational Church, in effect, inquired yesterday of the Superior Court. The quarrel is strictly private, and admission is only by invitation, Dr. Dyer was informed.

THE SPIRIT OF INDEPENDENCE

The original draft of Jefferson's Declaration of Independence in his own handwriting is preserved among the nation's archives at Washington. For 152 years Americans have celebrated the date on which it was signed. It ranks with the first charters of human liberty because it gave birth to the finest principles of government as yet conceived by the minds of mortals.

Time may fade the ink and yellow the parchment in the first draft of that immortal manifesto. The manner of celebrating its anniversary may vary with fashion and circumstance and the temper of the people. But so long as the spirit of the mighty men who fathered it lives among their descendants, nor time nor circumstance nor popular temper can change the destiny of the nation or permanently impair its strength.

Our Fourth of July is essentially an occasion for once again refreshing the national memory as to the fundamental principles to the perpetuation of which the day is dedicated. Not without learning the lesson of the past, not without a fixed determination to safeguard the future, did the fathers found American institutions on the character of the individual citizen as their first and surest support.

Too many of those who celebrate our national birthday have lost sight of its real significance. Too many, by their own failure to discharge their obligations and privileges as citizens, contribute to the defeat of the American ideal of free self-government. They would make government dependent not on the character and effort of the citizen, but the citizen dependent on the shifts and expediences of government. People do not grow from intangible abstractions, but from concrete units. The very fundamental of American freedom is that the people shall support the government, not that the government shall support the people.

Demagogues, radicals, faddists, self-seeking politicians, dyed-in-the-wool agitators are constantly at work, boring from within, blustering from without, to destroy the influence of the individual citizen in government and to barter his rights for a mess of pottage, vaguely alluded to as the protection of the government. Heaven only helps those who help themselves and no government on earth was ever entirely composed of angels.

Voters who absent themselves from the polls, weaklings who swallow the suggestions of false prophets, that they can obtain benefits by evading obligations, carelessly play into the hands of un-American propagandists. If we permit them to dominate our politics they will eventually fetter Uncle Sam's sturdy arms in the strait-jacket of bureaucracy.

Our American independence was not born of the power of governments over peoples but of the power of peoples over governments. In that rulership every individual citizen must bear his part, else our republican form of representative government will degenerate into a red-tape tyranny of privileged office holders. So we shall accept in an aggravated form the old grievance of taxation without representation.

A Presidential year is an appropriate time to make that individual influence count for definite results. We have to choose men and women to represent our hopes, our convictions, our principles in national, State and local administrations. The stream cannot rise higher than its source. The integrity, the ability of the government we get will be in direct proportion to the intelligence each voter as a unit puts into the selection of his representatives.

Independent thought, helpfulness, individuality, the responsible unit—of such is the Fourth of July.

SAFE AVIATION

Amateur aviators who take their lives in their hands when they grasp the "stick" on their first hazardous flights should heed the dictum of Lindbergh that "before you fly you must know all about your ship and how to handle it." An official report from San Francisco shows that during the last twelve months not a single life has been lost in planes flying in the northern district of California where licensed pilots have gone aloft, and that only one person was injured. A flyer should have such a knowledge of his work that he may be able to obtain a license. If he has not this knowledge, he takes a desperate chance, as has been proved in the accident referred to by numerous fatal accidents to tyros during the same period in which none befell the holders of licenses.

A statement has just been made by the management of the Western Air Express that the planes flying on the Los Angeles-Salt Lake route have covered more than a million miles since the service was established in April, 1926, and have carried 25,000,000 pieces of mail. During all those flights there has not been a single serious accident, no pilot has been injured and not an ounce of mail has been lost.

These reports show that with an experienced pilot at the helm of a good plane aviation is about as safe as any other means of transportation, while inexperience and a poorly built craft are almost bound to spell doom.

THE CANDY KID

Nate Walmsimmer, the last of the "Candy Kid" outlaws, the driver of the car in which the gang made its famous get-away, has been convicted and sentenced to forty years imprisonment. The last chapter is a tame ending as usual. Wittmore, the "Candy Kid" himself, went to the gallows not long ago. All the members of the gang have now been rounded up and branded. While the rascals have been playing up the leader as the master mind, his gang matter failed to function in the end. There was a last time and the bad boy had nothing but a sickly alibi and hand-cuffs.

Publicity has much to do with the glamour of the "master mind." The end of the trail usually gives it the lie. It turns out to be a sad story in a rag baby's head. Sawdust sooner or later spills out and there is nothing left.

The outside credit that is usually given the criminal for brains is frequently what keeps him afloat. The sleuths often tangle themselves up in mazes of their own and they fail to fol-

LEE SIDE O' LA

WE DON'T want to compete with Hints to Housewives, but we've learned something too good to keep. It's a confidential subject, though, one we feel a certain shyness about discussing with persons who are not members of the family. So let us whisper.

If you live in a beach town or any other place in which fleas could give us useful lessons. We don't mean for personal use, in lieu of baths or piners, but for use all over the floors, walls, etc.

Testimony
 For five years we lived in the lovely beach resort of Del Mar. We were freelancing then, and couldn't afford a vacuum cleaner—and the fleas kept us scratching even harder than the kiddies did. Of course, having a whole flock of children, we also had a dog, a cat and frequent visitors. The dog and cat and kittens apparently went out hunting every day, over the fields and along the beach. When they had collected all the fleas they could carry—or whatever the game limit for flea hunters is—they dutifully trotted back, sure that one of the thoughtful children would leave the door open and let them into the house.

How often, oh, how often have we seen some guest suddenly cease to be brightly absorbed in the subject of general conversation, suddenly become absent-minded and forgetful of the company and begin covertly pinching him- (or her-) self.

Farewell, Faithful Flea!

But the vacuum cleaner treats the flea worse than the automobile treated the sparrow.

The flea who used to bury himself in a rug and feel secure now finds himself ruthlessly swept out of his cyclone cellar. There is no safe place for any flea to flee. Of course, you've heard the story about the wicked flea where no man pursueth. But how can even such escape when she goes for a swim? It's a washout.

We've just returned from a week-end at Camp Unburied, our summer palace, and we hardly knew what to do with our time while there. What used to be our most regular occupation was gone. We never had to scratch a single scratch.

low some commonplace way of escape. Heated imagination often mistakes an alley for an avenue.

At that the Candy Kid may be the best of the gang and so the leader. He usually controls by his braggadocio. Cowardice is his mainstay. His get-away is his safety. His heels, not his head, are his chief assets. He shoots because he is a coward.

Candy Kid is right. He is a half-baked kid without either years or wisdom. He capitalizes the kindness of his pursuers. He lacks strategy and that is his safety. He is credited with acumen. If more citizens realized that bandits and burglars are but covering boys with neither ideas nor courage, more of them would be caught and spanked.

Fear clutches the butt end of a gun. The Jackals, that prey on decent citizens and take society unaware, may be the kid; but they are hardly the candy. Story books furnish their chief romance. Their temporary quarters are cellars and their ultimate home, State's prison. Their real lives lack scenery.

The Candy Kid turned out to be an all-day sucker!

A VERY HOPWOOD

As the tragic sequence to an ocean swim Avery Hopwood, the well-known American playwright, lies dead in France. According to a cable from Nice, near which his drowning occurred, he went for his swim after dinner and was seized with cramps while in deep water. After dinner swimming is not considered by health experts as a practice to be recommended, and Mr. Hopwood's sudden seizure probably will be attributed to that cause, though there may have been others.

No playwright in late years had a greater popularity than Mr. Hopwood. At one time he had four plays running on Broadway and several "on the road." Whatever criticism may be aimed at his productions from the standpoint of those who dislike the sex type of drama, there is no question as to his cleverness, both as to story and dialogue. Some of his characters stand out strongly, and will be long remembered.

Like other authors of erotic tendency, Mr. Hopwood excused his eroticism on the ground of realism and of giving theater-goers "what they wanted." But the fact that the motion-picture censors, generally liberal enough, invariably objected to what he considered his strongest situations shows that he erred in offering them to the public, the discriminating element of which would have preferred to have had them eliminated from his stage productions.

MANY SMITHS

The Democratic orator who said that the name of the Governor of New York was a household word was doubtless correct. There are said to be nearly 3,000,000 Smiths in America.

THE UNUSUAL

Down in the Argentine country a political prisoner escaped from his prison in an airplane—he being disguised as a woman while covering the few steps to reach the flyer. That sounds a good deal like a Hollywood movie.

OUR NATION'S BIRTHDAY

BY CHARLES COKE WOODS

We were born a hundred and fifty-two years ago. In the life of a nation that is a very youthful age. Perhaps the oldest nations now living think of us, after the kindly manner of old ladies, as still in our leading strings. But we got our milk teeth some time ago and have been well nourished. We got our eye teeth before Lincoln's day and have seen many wonderful things since that. For some little time now we have been cutting our wisdom teeth and we know a lot about the whole world and all the people in it. But we know enough to know that we do not know it all yet. Educationally that has been saving clause in our constitution. We are still open to conviction and our mental doors are open to truth. In the way of parental respect and patient endurance old China could give us useful lessons. In the way of courtesy and good manners Japan can teach us a thing or two. And though we got from under the thumb of old Mother England years ago we are still learning from her many useful lessons in good citizenship and the firm enforcement of law.

While all of this is true it is doubtful also that the youthfulness of our nation is a disadvantage. We have stimulated and encouraged the older

SOCIETY

BY JUANA NEAL LEVY

Just as the sun was setting, amid a garden of flowering plants and shrubs, one of the loveliest of the summer weddings took place in the Spanish gardens of the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Wallace Wattles on Curson street. Hollywood last evening when at 6:30 o'clock their elder daughter, Miss Margaret Elizabeth Wattles, became the bride of Glen Llewellyn Ritter of San Francisco, with Dr. Charles F. Alked officiating in the presence of relatives and friends.

The bridal entourage, led by Gordon Wattles, Jr., small brother of the bride, and dainty Cousin Barbara Brown, passed through an aisle of flowers and ferns to the altar of white dahlias and gladioli against a background of ferns and potted plants with myriads of lighted tall white candles.

The wedding music was furnished by the Hollywood Trio, including Mrs. Celeste Nellis Ryus, Sol Cohen and Robert Alter, and during the ceremony John Claire Monteth sang "Because."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was lovely in an imported model of white satin, with touches of rare old lace, the veil of tulle, bordered with duchesse lace, held in place by orange blossoms and pearls, and she carried an arm shower of orchids, gardenias and lilies of the valley.

Miss Mary Louise Wattles assisted her sister as maid of honor, while the bridesmaids are all former classmates, three of them at the University of Nebraska, Miss Miriam Gilligan of O'Neill, Miss Esther Marshall of Arlington, Miss Gertrude Harle of Omaha, Neb., and Miss Grace Valentine of New York City, who was her room-mate at Dana Hall, Wellesley.

All of the attendants wore frocks fashioned alike in the period model, in pastel shades, with tiny ruffled skirts. Miss Mary Louise Wattles wearing the peach tones, and the others in darker shades, and all carried old-fashioned nosegays of summer flowers in the pastel shades, with the exception of Miss Mary Louise, who carried Los Angeles roses and blue delphinium.

Van Winfield Rosendahl of San Francisco served Mr. Ritter as best man and the ushers included Edward I. Fitzpatrick of San Francisco, Everett R. Bailey of Pasadena, John L. Yates of St. Louis, Mo., and John C. Worden of Los Angeles.

A reception and wedding supper followed the ceremony, after which Mr. and Mrs. Ritter left for their honeymoon, and after their return will make their home in San Francisco.

Mrs. Ritter was graduated from Dana Hall, Wellesley, Mass., and also from the University of Nebraska, where she was a member of the Delta Gamma Sorority. After being graduated she traveled extensively abroad.

Mr. Ritter, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Ritter of Olney, Ill., claims the Colorado School of Mines as his alma mater and is affiliated with the Kappa Sigma Fraternity.

Vacationing
Planning a delightful trip, Mrs. William E. James of 521 South Shattuck place, recently left Saturday for an extensive outing, planning to be away until the middle of the month, when the former, cousin, Miss Edith Potts of Dieppe, France, is coming for a six months' visit.

Home From College
Edward Howard Cooke, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward H. Cooke of 850 South Windsor boulevard, has just returned from the north, where he was graduated last month from Stanford University, and is planning to pass the summer with his parents here.

Pre-nuptial Affair
Honoring Miss Elizabeth Ella Rupbeck and her fiancé, Willis Harold Peterson, whose wedding was an event of last Saturday, Mrs. Albert S. Van Etten and her daughter, Mrs. Eugene Willard Waterman, entertained Thursday evening at the home of the former in East Ocean boulevard, Long Beach, with a dinner party. The bride, who is an accomplished violinist, is a member of the music faculty at Manual Arts High School.

The dinner party also celebrated the first wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Waterman. Miss Rupbeck having been maid of honor at the ceremony last year.

The wedding motif was stressed in all the decorations and appointments of the dinner table, a wedding cake being the piece de resistance in the centerpiece, and a white

ALUMNAE CHOOSE PRESIDENT

Hollywood Leader Given High Position

Mrs. Frederick William Teschke

PROMINENT in college activities and much interested in sorority affairs, Mrs. Frederick William Teschke, of North Ogden Drive, Hollywood, has just been elected president of Zeta Phi Eta alumnae of Southern California. This is one of the most interesting honorary dramatic fraternities and Mrs.

wedding bell suspended from the center chandelier.

Invitations Issued
Cards of invitation are being issued by Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Ames of 1011 North Hollywood, who are the hosts of their attractive daughter, Miss Isabel Mildred Goudge, to Gerald Arthur Woods, the ceremony to take place in St. Paul's Cathedral, South Figueroa street, Tuesday the 17th inst at 8 p.m.

Delightful Affair
Among the lovely affairs of the week will be the swimming party and tea with which Mrs. Walter E. Prink is entertaining Friday afternoon at her home, 3920 Amesbury road, Los Hills villa, in honor of Miss Margaret Browning Clark, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Edward Hale, who has just returned from a year at Wesleyan Methodist College, in Macon, Ga.

Mrs. Hale and Mrs. Clarence P. Longwell presided at the tea table, and the other guests included Miss Mabelle Dean Crandall, Miss Dorothy Jane Becker, Miss Mary Alice Wickert, Miss Louise Miller, Miss Lola Lee, Miss Dorothy Hollingsworth, Miss Elizabeth Lee Brown, Miss Edna Hendrick, Miss Lorraine McGittigan of Berkeley, Miss Jean Burke and Miss Elizabeth Young.

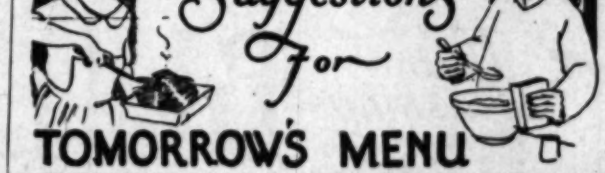

This is one of the lovely affairs which are being given for Miss Clark, who is one of the most popular members of the younger set here and in South Pasadena.

At Coronado
Motoring down to Hotel del Coronado the last of the week Mr. and Mrs. Howard Verbeck and their attractive daughter, Miss Marjorie Harrington, are guests at Hotel del Coronado, where the latter is attending the Delta Gamma Sorority national convention. Mr. and Mrs. Verbeck are planning to motor up to Coronado for several days but will return to Coronado for Miss Harrington at the close of the convention and they will motor home together.

Miss Harrington, a student of the University of California at Los Angeles, is a talented artist and painted all the sets for the musical comedy presented by her sorority sisters at Hotel del Coronado last Saturday night.

England and Wales claim to have more than 20,000 women farmers.

CHEF WYMAN'S Suggestions for

TOMORROW'S MENU

Every Tuesday and Friday at 2 o'clock Mrs. A. L. Wyman will conduct a free class and demonstration of good cooking in the lecture room of the Southwest Building, 139 South Broadway.

Breakfast
Blackberries
Coddled Eggs
Marmalade
Milk
Coffee

Luncheon
Baked Minced Clams
Cucumber and Beet, French Dressing
Cheese Sticks
Apple Custard Pie
Iced Tea

Dinner
Cream of Tomato Soup
Young Onions
Lamb Chops
Cream Gravy
Stuffed Potatoes
Tomatoes Marseilles
Hungarian Fruit Salad
Watermelon

BAKED MINCED CLAMS
Heat in a saucepan two table-spoonfuls of oil, add one finely chopped small onion and one clove of chopped garlic, cover the pan and cook until the onion is tender, but not brown; stir in two cupfuls of minced clams, one cupful of chopped corn, the beaten yolks of two eggs, a seasoning of salt and pepper, one tablespoonful of chopped parsley, mix altogether thoroughly and fold in the stiffly beaten whites of the two eggs and enough fresh bread crumbs to stiffen. Place in a well-buttered baking dish, cover with buttered crumbs and bake in a hot oven.

APPLE CUSTARD PIE
Soak one cupful of seedless raisins in a little sherry to cover overnight, beat until light four eggs and beat into them one and a half cupfuls of sugar, one-half cupful of creamed butter, and one and a quarter cupful of milk. Beat thoroughly and add a cupful of grated apples. Two tea-spoonfuls of nutmeg, and the soaked raisins, drained. Fill pastry-lined dish with the mixture, cover with pastry and bake.

CREAM OF TOMATO SOUP
One quart of tomatoes, one-fourth of a teaspoonful of soda, four table-spoonfuls of butter, four table-spoonfuls of flour, four cupfuls of milk, two teaspoonfuls of salt, half a teaspoonful of pepper, peel, cut up the tomatoes, and stew slowly for half an hour. Melt the butter, stir in the flour, place on the simmer burner and slowly add the milk, stirring constantly, add the seasonings, strain the tomatoes, add the soda, stir into the sauce and serve at once with cubes of fried bread.

TOMATOES MARSEILLES
Select six good-sized firm tomatoes, wipe and cut them in half through the sides, pour one-quarter of a cup of oil in a saute pan, let it heat well, lay in the tomatoes on the sides which are cut and cook briefly for a minute. Line a baking dish with butter, lay the tomatoes in this on the uncooked side and season with salt and pepper. Make a dressing with two finely chopped shallots, two cloves of chopped garlic, one teaspoonful of chopped chives, two hard-boiled eggs, one teaspoonful of chopped parsley, two finely chopped anchovies, and two table-spoonfuls of butter; mix altogether and blend thoroughly. Cover the tops of the tomatoes with dressing, dust with a few fresh bread crumbs, dot with a small piece of butter and bake in a very hot oven about eight minutes.

THE CHARTER MEMBERS
Charter-member day at the imposing, large, influential woman's club, in its $2,000,000 clubhouse, was a sentimental occasion. Fifteen of the original members were present—steeped in emotional memories.

For this club was founded thirty years ago, when any woman's movement was under ridicule, when it took courage and vision to found a club openly and face almost organized derision. They were young married women in those days, with centuries of tradition against their enterprises.

Today they see actually millions of women enjoying this heritage as a matter of course, without criticism, even, indeed, flattered and caajoled by male politicians and statesmen. They have lived to hear their sex assured that the future of civilization rests in their fair hands. They have lived to see their clubs become a great power in the country, and an honorable power.

But they can remember when it was a reproach to belong to a woman's club, when the comic cartoonists of the country waxed rich on ridiculing them. They can remember when no newspaper editor could be induced to take them seriously, and they have lived to see special departments of the newspapers devoted to their news, with special club editors employed to see that none of it is missed.

They can remember when clubs had to meet in private homes and when later it was an exciting, glorious triumph to ground for several days but will return to Coronado for Miss Harrington at the close of the convention and they will motor home together.

Miss Harrington, a student of the University of California at Los Angeles, is a talented artist and painted all the sets for the musical comedy presented by her sorority sisters at Hotel del Coronado last Saturday night.

England and Wales claim to have more than 20,000 women farmers.

YOUR BABY and MINE
By Myrtle Meyer Eldred

ONE PRIME DIFFICULTY OF WEANING
Weaning the 9-months-old child who has never before had a bottle is usually accompanied by a struggle. Mother prepares the bottle, approaches baby, and says coaxingly: "Here's something nice for baby!" Apparently baby doesn't like it so far, his red tongue pushes the nasty black nipple out of his mouth as fast as mother puts it in. He crawls to the far end of the bed and howls pitifully. Time and again the mother puts the bottle near his mouth, squirts out a few drops of milk to show him that it is perfectly good, tastes good and all, but baby simply will have none of it. If mother is a stern disciplinarian she may decide to let baby starve for another three hours and then try again, but this is a dismal task and the average mother can't stand the screaming and fussing, so she gives in and feeds the baby leaving things exactly as they were in the beginning.

Isn't it natural that in the child's mind the mother is so firmly correlated to the process of nursing that she would be a very poor person to offer him food in a new way? You see, we are not considering the baby who is so starved that he will accept anything, but the baby who is nourished and yet must be started on a new food. Any other person would not assume this same position in baby's mind. Aunties or grandmas or even daddy or a nurse or any stranger, if the mother were not present, could induce baby to accept a bottle and he wouldn't mind it at all. Only when he sees mother around will he demand to be nursed.

Keep this in mind. When offering baby a bottle for the first time let some one else do it. Prepare the bottle and then stay out of sight or go away for the few hours preceding the feeding period. When baby is hungry, mother absent, and the nice warm, good-tasting milk flows into his mouth, he will accept it eagerly.

Continue this for a few days until the bottle has become an old story to the baby; then it may be possible for mother to try in sight and he will still be willing to take it.

Slow weaning is always preferable as it does not upset the baby. That means one bottle this week, two bottles next week, three the week following, etc. Mother just has to stay close by for the four weeks it takes to wean a baby completely, but she may stay away during the actual giving of the first difficult bottle.

Antelope and Linen Straw Are New Hat Fabrics

By Florence La Gault

When is an antelope not an antelope? When it is black suede. Nancy knew the answer to this even though she was not visiting the shops these days. Nancy was a woman of style and she kept up with things through advertisements and fashion magazines even though she was not wearing anything but negligees. She knew she would soon be out in the world again and she did not want to be behind the times.

So when her mother asked her about antelope she had her answer ready. More than that, she suggested that her niece, whose wardrobe they were discussing, purchase a trim antelope hat for traveling. She chose black grosgrain ribbon for trimming. "Antelope also comes in pastel shades," said she, "but nothing is smarter than black."

As a dresser hat she suggested a fine straw in oyster white or beige. It was to have a medium-size brim soft enough to give an irregular frame for the face. That type of brim is usually more becoming to any wearer. She suggested a deep, almost a navy point to honor the hat trimmings. This would go well with the linen printed dress which her niece already had. Nancy knew that ensemble was still the thing.

Nancy knows about weddings, too. While her niece was not interested just yet you may be. Write to her care of this paper, enclosing a stamped, addressed envelope, asking for her leaflet on "Weddings."

BRIDGE-LUNCHEON
Mrs. Harry Shimmis of Los Angeles, who is leaving shortly for Honolulu, was the guest of honor last Friday afternoon at a bridge luncheon given by Mrs. Willard Cram in the delightful open-air patio at the Patio Restaurant and Tea Garden on Beverly boulevard.

Don't get in the habit of using too many cream sauces on things. They are very apt to make a number of vegetables and meats taste alike and therefore very monotonous.

PLANTATION DISHES
Just a little ways out in Beverly Boulevard at 751, to be exact, may be found a delightfully different place to dine—the Cuckoo Clock Plantation Kitchen, where a real Dixie and real Southern cooks prepare the delicious dishes of old plantation days. Noonday lunch also is served, with teas and specialities throughout the afternoon. The waiters in open from 11 o'clock each morning until 1 o'clock the next morning.

HOT WEATHER SPECIALS
The Harmony Cafeteria in Hollywood boulevard is making a specialty of these days of hot weather dishes, according to the management. No effort has been spared to present to their patrons the tastiest of summer dishes served in a manner that is decidedly attractive.

CONVENIENT LOCATION
The convenient location of Carl Jahnke's Grill in West 8th street has been recognized readily, if the ever-increasing number of patrons of this famous establishment is a criterion. The excellent lunches and dinners that Mr. Jahnke serves, together with the fact that cars can be parked easily in the neighborhood, has built for him an enviable reputation for service and quality food.

HOME TALENT NIGHT
To the old-time stagesters who were wont to enjoy "amateur nights" the management of the Hollywood Boulevard, located in Hollywood boulevard, promises a world of fun this evening in presenting a "home talent night." Acts of all kinds are to be presented by amateurs who hope some day to become headliners, it is announced.

HEALTH DIET

By Dr. Frank M. Coy

Author of "The Heart Power in Diet"

Dr. Coy will answer personal queries on health and diet, addressed to him, in the Los Angeles Times. Letters should be addressed to him.

RED, WHITE, AND BLUE BLOOD
The heart is a very industrious organ, working vigorously from several months before our births till our deaths. It has no rest except the very slight, almost imperceptible pause between the beats. In infants the heart beats about 120 per minute, and in adults the average is seventy-two, but there is a large margin of variation. Doctors can often tell whether a mother is going to have a boy or girl baby before it is born by counting the fetal heart beats. This is because a girl baby's heart usually beats faster than a boy's.

The heart has its impulses to contract and relax within itself, and if all nerves leading to it are severed, it will continue to beat for a short time. (Fishermen sometimes observe a shark's heart beating for two hours or longer after it has been cut out of the body.)

There are two sets of nerves leading to the heart; one to make it beat faster and the other to make it beat slower. One set is like a brake and the other is a whip. A doctor can press on these nerves and control (within certain limits) the speed of the heart.

The contractions of the heart are called systole, and the dilations are called diastole. Before birth there is an opening between the right and left sides of the heart so that the blood will not be forced into the lungs but will pass directly back into the circulation. With the first gasp of air, this opening closes and the contraction then starts the blood flowing through the lungs so that the oxygen is absorbed. Occasionally this opening fails to close and we have what is called a "blue baby." It is having a blue color because the blood is not forced through to the lungs to absorb the oxygen.

As you know, the venous blood is blue and the arterial blood is red. This is because the venous is laden with carbon dioxide gas which is thrown out through the lungs and the oxygen absorbed makes it red. As you can see by this, the arteries and veins traveling between the lungs and the heart are an exception to this color scheme. There the veins have red blood, and the arteries blue.

Delegates to Democratic Convention Visit Here

Leading Chicago Politicians Included in Party

Among guests of Los Angeles, numbering in all about 150, going back to Illinois from the Texas conclave are, left to right, John J. Touhy, trustee, Chicago sanitary district; T. J. Crowe, president of the district; Michael L. Igoe, minority leader, Illinois House of Representatives; Martin J. O'Brien, chief clerk of the district, and John J. Touhy, Jr. Their host, William F. Casey, manager of the Victoria Arms Hotel, is between O'Brien and Touhy, Jr.

CHIEF QUILTS BUREAU FOR RESEARCHES

Daugherty Takes Miller's Position as Manager of Better Business

After seven years as manager of the Better Business Bureau of Los Angeles, Ferris R. Miller has resigned to become director of research of the May Company. It was announced yesterday by Arthur Lee, managing director of the Advertising Club
and Better Business Bureau.

His successor will be Daniel
N. Dougherty of San Francisco, a practising attorney specializing in cases before the Federal Trade Commission who, for seven years, was in charge of the Pacific Coast offices of the commission.
Mr. Dougherty is a graduate of Georgetown University and was for three years with the Department of Justice at Washington before coming to the Coast to open the far-western offices of the trade commission.

The change will take place August 1.
Work of the Better Business Bureau, it is also announced, has been systematized so that the new manager may spend all his time on major investigations, many of which are in the field of finance. The shopping service is being placed in charge of Miss Monica Graham, assistant to the managing director.
Mr. Miller has handled approximately 18,000
cases involving truth in advertising and business ethics. He served for three years on the board of governors of the National Better Business Council, and was formerly with the Goodyear Tire and Rubber Company, having come out from Akron,
O., as publicity director of the company.

Hospital Wing to Open Today

That patriotism is not merely a matter of noise will be shown in the celebration of the Fourth of July by the Hollywood Girl's Auxiliary of the Children's Hospital at Sunset and Vermont. Instead of buying fireworks they have been ferred to it from their temporary quarters in the surgical department today.
The cubicles are glass partitions surrounding each unit. They insure quiet for those who are not well enough to stand the chatter of the convalescents, and they permit the nurse to keep all the beds under constant observation.
The Community Chest will provide the funds for the daily care of the children, but the auxiliary and their friends of the hospital are providing the equipment and taking care of the new building.

One-Way Street Orders Sought

The Police Commission has asked the City Council to declare one-way streets on the following streets in the Highland Park district: Colorado Boulevard, Broadway, Eagle Rock Boulevard, Glassell avenue, and Glassell Boulevard.
This is the first time requests have been made for the creation of one-way streets in Los Angeles.
In the East, particularly in Boston, where there are many narrow streets, the one-way street plan has been in effect for many years in the interest of relieving traffic congestion.

ILLINOISANS ARRIVE FOR SHORT STAY

Contingent Extends Trip Home from Houston Meeting to See Los Angeles

Members of the Illinois delegation to the Democratic National Convention, with their wives and friends, the whole party numbering about 150, arrived on a special Union Pacific train yesterday afternoon for a four-day stop in Los Angeles.

On Friday they will depart for San Francisco, returning from there to Chicago.

While in Los Angeles the party will stop at the Victoria Arms Hotel, where they will be entertained by William F. Casey, the manager, who knew many of his guests when he was in the hotel business in Chicago.

The group includes John J. Sullivan, the Democratic nominee for State's Attorney for Cook county, who will oppose Judge John A.
Swanson, the victor in last April's bitter primary campaign with State's Attorney Crowe; John J.
Touhy, trustee of the Chicago Sanitary District; T. J. Crowe, president of the district; Michael L. Igoe, minority leader of the Illinois House of Representatives; and Martin J.
O'Brien, chief clerk of the district.

INVESTIGATIONS SWAMP
MAYOR OF NEW YORK
Hundreds of investigations to public and semipublic gatherings that have poured in on Mayor Walker of New York City, since his arrival here Tuesday, must await a decision as to the length of his stay, it was announced last night from his headquarters at the Roosevelt Hotel.

Mayor Walker is here for rest and does not care to be tied down to a formal program, and is making very limited engagements until after a few days' vacation, his secretary said. Requests for Mayor Walker to visit San Francisco, Seattle, Santa Barbara, Fresno, and other Coast cities were received yesterday.

The Mayor spent yesterday on an automobile ride over the city and to the beaches. Last night he had dinner at the private home of a New York acquaintance and will spend today on the beach at Santa Monica, and tonight will be a dinner guest at a private home.

Only two engagements have been made for him. Thursday noon he will attend the weekly luncheon of the Democratic Luncheon Club in the ballroom at the Alexandria Hotel. One thousand persons are expected. Other guests at the luncheon will be members of the Illinois delegation from the Houston convention. On Friday night Mayor Walker will attend the boxing show at the Hollywood Legion stadium.

Husband Calls Home "Pig Pen"

During the first flush of their marriage romance Harold Swisher paid little or no attention to the fact that his demure young wife was not much of a housekeeper.
Mrs. Louise Swisher told Superior Judge Ambrose yesterday when asking for a divorce.
"But Harold changed awfully," the wife testified. "He began calling our little home a 'pig pen.'"
Then, too, when they were first married Harold wouldn't look at another woman, she declared. That changed, too, 1:30 some time after they married. They began to take a wife around. The decree was granted.

JAPANESE ARRESTED ON GAMBLING CHARGE

Police last night raided a game at 892 San Julian street, and fourteen Japanese were arrested and taken to Grainger-street Station. The raid was directed by Detective-Lieutenant Jordan, who said the Japanese were playing "the flower game." The Japanese asserted they were not gambling, but were unable to explain the large amount of money on the table and were booked on gambling charges.

BUILDING IN JULY BEGINS LIKE ROCKET

Permit Valuations Since
1st Inst. Total Far Above
Last Year at Same Time

Building-permit valuations in Los Angeles for July promise to eclipse by far those of the same month a year ago if the figures for the first few days can be taken as a criterion.

Permit valuations since Sunday are $48,335, while a year ago at this date they amounted to $26,817.
This despite the fact that last year's totals included 300 permits, while but 178 permits have been issued this month.

Included in the larger permits this month are a $115,000 residence and office for Occidental College at Eagle Rock, a $165,000 apartment building to be built at 7800 Hollywood Boulevard by H. E. Harrington, $175,000 wharf improvements for Los Angeles Harbor and a $30-000 public-utility building to be used in connection with the city's garbage-disposal plant.

Need for additional police on the Los Angeles department was voiced yesterday by the Police Commission following receipt of further complaints asking greater co-operation by the police in halting burglaries.

The Piggly Wiggly chain stores recently complained to the commission that co-operation to protect their stores was lacking and yesterday a communication was received from J. A. Daley, head of the Daley chain of grocery stores, asserting that forty-seven burglaries had been committed in the stores since January 1. Total value of stolen property was given as $100,000 and Daley declared he would rather pay the money in taxes for more officers than donate it to the burglars.

The commission had before it the request of the Wilshire and Western District Association for more police. The request had been referred to the commission by the City Council.

Air Exposition Earth Breaking Set for Sunday

Flying representatives from every airport in Southern California have promised to be at Mines Field, Inglewood, Sunday, for the groundbreaking for the National Air Races and Aeronautical Exposition, to be held here in September, according to Cliff Henderson, director-general.
City and county officials, American Legion executives, service clubs, the Junior Chamber of Commerce and other civic organizations also have promised to co-operate.

Pins Given for Long Oil Service

J. F. Jeffries, manager of the Standard Oil Company sales department at Los Angeles, was presented with a service pin, representing twenty years of continuous service with the company, at a banquet given in his honor at the Elite Cafe last night. Some 200 members of the department were present.
Others presented with twenty-year pins are W. S. Barnes, J. F.
Taylor and F. J. Smith. Ten fifteen-year pins and twenty-two ten-year pins also were presented. The presentation speech was made by E. M. James, recently retired from the company's employment after forty-five years of service.
Similar gatherings have been held in the past few days. It was said, in various cities of the Coast for the initiation of new members in the service organization.

Days of Birth of National Anthem Far Cry From Present Era of Power

The Star-Spangled Banner

O! say, can you see by the dawn's early light,
What so proudly we hail'd by the battle's early fight,
Whose bright stars above the banner's folds did gleam and gleam?
O'er the ramparts we watch'd as so bravely they came—
And the rockets and blue-blasts did burst in the air,
Flinging the broad flames of fire upon the flying star,
O! say, does that star-spangled banner yet wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave?

On that shore, dimly seen through the mists of the deep,
Where the foe's haughty host in dread silence reposes,
What is that which the brave, o'er the trumpets they blow,
As its folds fully unfold, half-conceal'd, half-disclose?
Now it catches the gleam of the morning's first beam,
In full, long reflected, now shines on the stream—
'Tis the star-spangled banner, O! long may it wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave.

And where is that host that so vauntingly came
That the house of war to battle's confusion,
As home in a country should have us no more?
Their blood has wash'd out their foul footsteps' pollution.
No refuge could save the hireling and slave
From the terror of flight or the gloom of the grave,
And the star-spangled banner in triumph doth wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave.

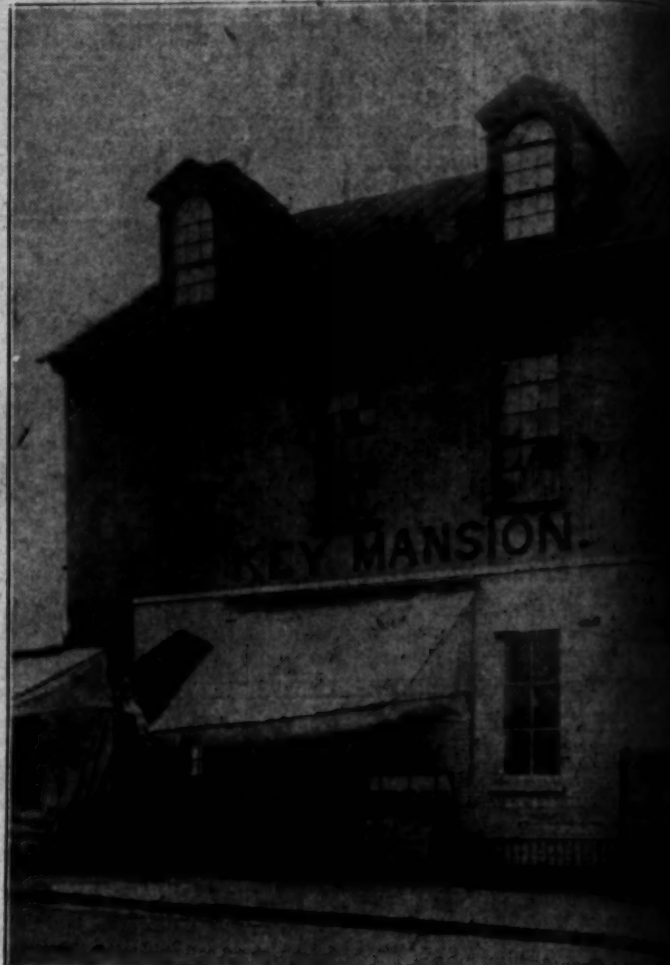

O! thus be it ever when freemen shall stand
To their rights on that shore and the arm of the resolution,
That with our valiant friends, may the heart in our nation
Be the first to the last, and the last to the first,
Then conquer we must, when our cause it is just,
And this we can never be but our trust,
And the star-spangled banner in triumph shall wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave.

F. Key

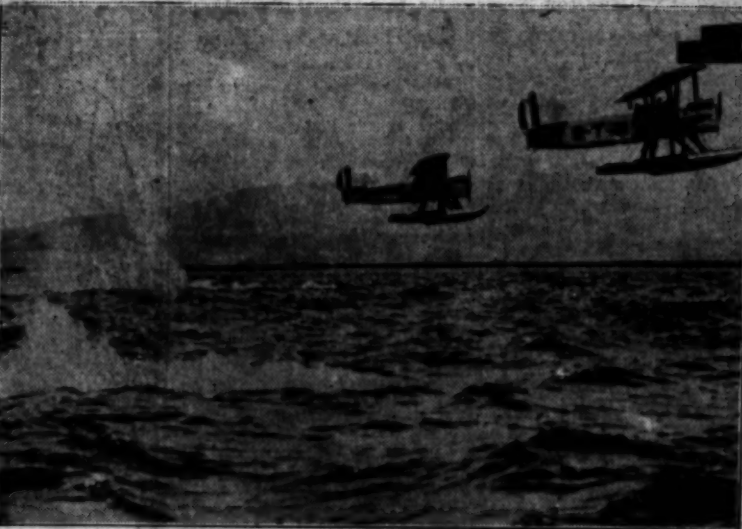

A Fac-simile Reproduction of Our National Anthem, Just As It Was Written by Francis Scott Key more than 100 years ago, is presented above through the courtesy of W. A. Brown. The inspired words of the patriot recall the struggle of the infant republic, now the greatest nation in the world, during those strenuous years of the early part of last century. The theme was suggested to the author as he watched, a captive aboard a British vessel, the shelling of Fort M'Henry.

Tandberg, Northern Musher, and his four-footed rescue crew as they boarded the Hobby during the hunt for the Nobile expedition. Tandberg, experienced dog-team driver, rushed inland with his team while airplane conducting an overhead search and sealing vessels were attempting to reach party by water. (A. P. photo.)

OUR HISTORY IN PICTURES 1071 The Philippines as An American Colony. The Americans in Manila.

by J. CARROLL MANSFIELD

ON AUGUST 13, 1898, THE AMERICAN FORCES UNDER MAJOR-GENERAL WESLEY MERRITT CAPTURED THE CITY OF MANILA. THE NEXT DAY THE SPANARDS SIGNED THE ARTICLES OF CAPTULATION, AND GENERAL MERRITT ISSUED A PROCLAMATION ESTABLISHING A MILITARY GOVERNMENT OVER THE CITY AND ENVIRONS.

THE AMERICANS AT ONCE TOOK OVER THE MANAGEMENT OF THE LOCAL GOVERNMENT, AND AMERICAN OFFICERS WERE PLACED IN CHARGE OF THE VARIOUS MUNICIPAL DEPARTMENTS. SHORTLY AFTERWARD, GENERAL MERRITT LEFT FOR PARIS TO ATTEND THE MEETING OF PEACE COMMISSIONERS THERE, AND WAS SUCCEEDED AS MILITARY GOVERNOR BY MAJOR-GENERAL OTIS.

THE OCCUPATION OF MANILA WAS FOLLOWED BY NO DISORDER OR LOOTING, AND THE CONDUCT OF OUR SOLDIERS WAS MOST CREDITABLE. ON AUGUST 13TH, WHEN OUR TROOPS ENTERED THE CITY, EVERYTHING WAS CLOSED, BUT BY THE 18TH ALL BANKS, FACTORIES AND STORES HAD OPENED FOR BUSINESS AND THE TRAM CARS WERE RUNNING.

THE GUARDIA CIVIL, OR LOCAL POLICE, PROVED INEFFICIENT, AND WAS DISBANDED, AND THE TASK OF POLICING WAS GIVEN TO THE 13TH INFANTRY REGIMENT. THE GUARDIA CIVIL AND THE
